Exploring our Faith

This first Sunday of Lent is a time to reinvigorate ourselves as Catholics. It enables us to step back from the usual habits and distractions and give particular attention to God. It leads us to the Easter Sunday celebration of our risen Christ. It is a time for prayer (justice towards God), fasting (justice towards self) and almsgiving (justice towards neighbours).

Common practice for me when I was a child was giving up sweets, candy, trying to attend daily Mass, putting a dime every day in a Lenten folder, etc. Then years later, when I was teaching in a Catholic inner-city school, the children (who weren't used to getting candy anyway) practised their faith in Lent by "acts": helping to look after younger siblings and trying not to fight with them, inviting others to play at recess, helping out doing chores etc. Now, as a senior, I look for ways to "do" not just to "give up". I'd like to share some rather good Lenten activities that I read about, that provoke more actual growth as a Catholic.

Don't buy anything that you don't need. Throw away/ give away 40 things for 40 days. No gossiping. Work out daily to take care of the body God gave you. Say 3 nice things to your spouse and children daily. Appreciate more what I have. Make a list of people who have touched my life in one way or another. Each day of Lent, write a person on the list a letter of thanks for how they touched my life and pray for that person on that day. Give up complaining. Perform an act of kindness for 40 days. Try to improve my spirit of giving. Give up the radio in the car in order to focus more on the things that are around me that God created. Spend more time with family/friends. We cherish time. We spend to save time. We rush to save time. Yet none of us have the time we long for. So, try using our time with others.

LENT
Pray + Fast + Give

Ideas for children/young people: Avoid asking for toys when going to the store with mom/dad. Do a child-friendly chore that you don't like to do. Be positive and do not complain (I am bored! I don't like this or that! I don't have any toys! etc.) Teach a younger sibling something new and cool. Offer to teach a skill to a peer. Make a package of school supplies and bring them to your teacher to give to a needy student. Write a prayer for all the kids sick and hungry in the world. Read it at night.

Pope Francis has suggested: FAST from hurting words and say kind words. FAST from sadness and be filled with gratitude. FAST from anger and be filled with patience. FAST from pessimism and be filled with hope. FAST from worries and trust in God. FAST from complaints and contemplate simplicity. FAST from pressures and be prayerful. FAST from bitterness and fill your heart with joy. FAST from selfishness and be compassionate to others. FAST from grudges and be reconciled. FAST from words and be silent so you can listen.

If we try to practise many of these suggestions, we will grow in our relationship with God. It won't be just the usual "giving up sweets" practice but true, thoughtful practices that show that we are true followers of Christ.

Fr. Angus

As part of St. Augustine's long-term sustainability strategy, Father Angus, the Finance Council, and the Local Pastoral Council decided to sell the rectory. This sale will bring in much-needed cash and lower annual parish operating expenses. Our sales goal is to work with the non-profit sector focussed on housing vulnerable citizens to complement our parish's social justice mission.

The Archbishop of the Moncton Diocese is completely aware and is very supportive of the sale of the rectory and does have the final decision on the terms of sale. We entertained two proposals and are now finalizing a Purchase and Sale Agreement with one of the organizations. We had two meetings with parish committee representatives to advise them of our plan and progress. Parish offices for the staff will move to the Villa basement and Father Angus will work out of the church sacristy.

We will keep parishioners informed of our progress. We ask for your prayers and support as we pursue this new chapter in our parish. God Bless.

Lenten reflections:

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops have produced a series of reflections for Ash Wednesday and the Sundays during Lent, in both English and French, which will be made available on their website each Monday during Lent. We are grateful to Bishop Gerard Bergie of the Diocese of St. Catharines and Msgr. Marcel Dampousse, Archbishop of Ottawa, for providing these reflections for us. This link will take you to the (English) reflection for Ash Wednesday: <https://www.cccb.ca/evangelization-catechesis-catholic-education/video-resources/journey-through-lent/>

Nurturing Friendship: the Directory for Catechesis in dialogue with the Encyclical Letter Fratelli Tutti.

The CCCB Office for Evangelization and Catechesis will offer a four-part webinar series, beginning March 2nd, which will explore how the themes of these two documents call catechists to be people of hope who promote human dignity and communion with God by building bridges and asking, 'Who is my neighbour?' ... it is important that catechesis and preaching speak more directly and clearly about the social meaning of existence, the fraternal dimension of spirituality, our conviction of the inalienable dignity of each person, and our reasons for loving and accepting all our brothers and sisters. (FT 86). Keynote speakers from across the country will draw insight from the two documents and propose concrete ways to help form communities of missionary disciples within dioceses, eparchies, parishes, and Catholic schools. The series is designed for those who have responsibility for evangelization and catechesis including, clergy, consecrated persons, laity involved in ministry, directors and coordinators of evangelization and catechesis, and Catholic educators. The webinar series is offered at no cost to participants; sessions take place on March 2, 9, 16 and 23 from 2:00 – 3:30 p.m. Please click here to access the online registration form, which will also provide information on the keynote speaker and specific topic for each session. The deadline to register is Monday, 22 February 2021. Please note that the webinar recordings will be available on the CCCB website and YouTube channel following the last session on 23 March 2021. For more information, contact Mrs. Marg Shea-Lawrence at m.shea-lawrence@cccb.ca.
