Pastor's COLUMN

“With grace and gladness...”

Our Easter Season continues this weekend as we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Easter unfolding in our midst. We continue hearing from John's Gospel account. He has unique things to say and relates stories about Jesus not found anywhere else. Our passage today is a case in point. Other gospel accounts have Jesus saying, “love your neighbor,” and “love your enemies.” But today we hear the simple and profound command to “love one another.” As we well know, to fulfill this command is challenging, but it remains our constant challenge as members of the Body of Christ. As we continue celebrating this Easter season and attempt to embrace the challenge of the gospel, may we do so as devoted disciples of Christ.

On Monday evening we will have our “Fish Dinner Appreciation Get Together.” I would like to once again thank all for their hard work and effort this year to make our dinners another great success. Your commitment and dedication to this great parish event is deeply appreciated. The financial results of this year's dinners will be available next week.

Have a great week!
Fr. Balash

Scripture that will be proclaimed next weekend:

~ May 25/26, 2019 ~

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2, 22-29

Some who had come down from Judea were instructing the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the Mosaic practice,..."

Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

The angel took me in spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem...

John 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him..."

Please take time to prepare together as a family the above readings. By families sharing God's word, His word will become part of family life and not just words that are heard in church.
