

EL SANTUARIO DE LOS POBLADORES
DEDICATED TO THE MYSTERIES OF THE ROSARY

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and the Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. An illustration of the Dedication Plaques will be presented in the parade for Labor Day to give everyone an image of how they look. The plaques will have a significant placement in the Santuario courtyard as you enter. This phase will begin in the spring of 2024.

This is a picture of the completed mission statue of St. Augustine. The life-size bronze depiction has temporarily been placed at the church in Antonito and will eventually be placed at the Santuario along with six additional mission statues. The process for the next mission statue will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We have volunteers actively seeking contributions for the remaining missions of Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio.

In addition to the mission statues surrounding the Santuario and the statue of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego at the entrance, walkways will lead visitors to various areas of interest. The placement of new trees will also be available to contributors who are interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on the New Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos.

We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along and to local santero Chris Cisneros for his contribution of a beautiful carved depiction of Our Lady of Guadalupe that is on display in the middle of the courtyard. Your continued support and prayers are greatly appreciated. Tours will be available. Please call the church in advance, if possible. Thank You!

MASS THEME

Theme: The Human and the Divine Element in Religion

On leaving the safe family setting and going to college, many young intellectuals begin to have doubts about their religion. An agnostic professor may make a sneering remark about "The Good Book"; fellow students, though ostensibly Catholics, may show by their behavior that they could not care less about religion. Although there are many reasons for such confusion in young minds, one may be that many do not make a distinction between what is God-made and what is human in religion, especially as we used to live it in the Catholic tradition. Basic Christianity is a beautiful way of life, but many object to the way It has been institutionalized over the centuries. Many human-made details were added and some of them are/were undoubtedly outdated. The renewal movement begun by the Second Vatican Council aims at divesting the Church of human baggage picked up along its journey through history. Naturally, this requires sound and informed leadership in order not to "throw out the baby with the bath water," in other words, in the process of cleaning not to do away with divine elements. As the saying goes: "Pope John wanted to open the windows to let in fresh air, not to throw out the furniture!" Young and old should update themselves. If programs are available take part in them, or ask your parish council to take constructive initiatives.

FIRST READING Dt 4:1-2, 6-8 [Observing God's Law]

Meditating on the Law of Moses, the author of Deuteronomy saw the danger of human traditions, usually created by pious and well-intentioned churchmen, which could obscure the original will of God for his people. In your observance of the commandments of the Lord, "you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it."

From the Gospel we learn that the Pharisees and experts of the law in Jesus' time had not heeded this advice of Deuteronomy too well. The Re-sponsorial Psalm mentions a few things that cannot be done away with.

SECOND READING Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27[Act on God's Word]

The sacred author stresses that the word of God is a genuine benefit from above, freely given by God. If this word is humbly welcomed in faith, it will save us. But we should do more than just listen to God's word. We should also live it.
