TUMC Praise Team

Prayer

In Thanksgiving, we worship the God who created the Heavens and the Earth. The God who indwells our lives. We need not look up to find God, we need only to look around: within ourselves, into the eyes of another. We need not listen for distant thunder to find God, we need only listen to the music of life, the words of children, the questions of the curious, and the rhythm of a heartbeat. We give thanks from the depths of our hearts and worship God today. Amen. (John Howell)

Prayer

Gracious God, who gives and gives and gives again. Hear our plea today for a generous spirit, that we may find and return to you all the preciousness of thanksgiving the Earth's bounty brings forth. You have created each moment. You have brought forth your endless goodness. Grant us so to love our neighbors and ourselves that we may find you whom we seek with heart and mind and soul and strength. Hear our plea for the gift of a generous spirit, to share the endless love that comes from you. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Psalm 65:4-13 (picture: Ted & Tami Weitman)

Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple. ⁵You answer us with awesome and righteous deeds, God our Savior, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas, ⁶who formed the mountains by your power, having armed yourself with strength, ⁷who stilled the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations. ⁸The whole earth is filled with morning dawns, forth songs of joy. water it; you enrich God are filled with with grain, for so drench its furrows it with showers awe at your wonders; where where evening fades, you call ⁹You care for the land and it abundantly. The streams of water to provide the people you have ordained it. ¹⁰You and level its ridges; you soften and bless its crops. ¹¹You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance. ¹²The grasslands of the wilderness overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness. ¹³The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with grain; they shout for joy and sing.
