AUSTRALIAN BRUMBY CHALLENGE 2018: HUMANE TREATMENT POLICY

Every Brumby and all animals shall, at all times, be treated humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. Any participant using abusive or excessive training techniques or being inhumane to a Brumby in his/her care (determined excessive or abusive by a panel assigned by the Victorian Brumby Association and consisting of licensed equine veterinarian(s) and/or respected horse industry professionals) may be removed from the contest and/or all future contests and training programs. If a participant's horse enters the contest or if the trainer/participant at any time presents a horse with questionable training/care related injuries (determined excessive or abusive by a panel assigned by the Victorian Brumby Association and consisting of licensed equine veterinarian(s) and/or respected horse industry professionals) the participant may be removed from the contest and/or all future contests and training programs.

The following list includes but is not limited to examples of unacceptable behaviour and training techniques:

- No horse appearing to be emaciated, drawn or injured may be exhibited.
- Use of or evidence of inhumane training techniques or methods such as striking horse with objects, excessive spurring and/or excessive jerking of reins.
- Any inhumane treatment.

Additionally, the Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge promote and encourages the following examples of sound, compassionate, and successful training techniques and Brumby handling methods:

- Horse and trainer exhibiting solid relationship based on respect and understanding
- A calm and willing partnership between horse and trainer, regardless of the obstacle or environmental challenge during competition or training phases
- Trainer maintains a credible level of dignity for the horse during all phases of training and competition.
- Trainers are expected to seek and employ methods of horsemanship in order to promote and encourage the positive relationship between horse and trainer.
- Training techniques should demonstrate a strong bond between horse and trainer

The Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge support the highest attention to humane treatment and welfare in equine competitions of all kind and are committed to supporting the International Society for Equine Sciences Code of Conduct (attached to this application form). My signature below indicates that I have read, understood and fully support this document.

Through my signature below, I certify that I have read and understand the Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge Humane Treatment policy, and agree to abide by these principles as a participant in the Australian Brumby Challenge program. I also understand that should a determination be made (as outlined above) that I have violated any part of this policy, I may lose the privilege of competing at Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge sponsored events, and may also lose the privilege of any future opportunity to purchase Brumbies.

AUSTRALIAN BRUMBY CHALLENGE 2018: FILM/VIDEO RELEASE

I, _____ ("Model"), for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged, give to the Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge ("PRODUCER"), its legal representatives, successors, and all persons or corporations acting with its permission, unrestricted permission to copyright and/or use, and/or publish photographic portraits or pictures of the Model, and the negatives, transparencies, prints, or digital information pertaining to them, in still, single, multiple, moving or video format, or in which the Model may be included in whole or in part, or composite, or distorted in form, or reproductions thereof, in colour or otherwise, made through any media in photographer's studio or elsewhere for art, or any other lawful purpose.

I hereby waive any right that I may have to inspect and approve the finished product or copy that may be used in connection with an image that the Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge has taken of the Model, or the use to which it may be applied.

I further release PRODUCER, Victorian Brumby Association and Australian Brumby Challenge or others for whom PRODUCER is acting, from any claims for remuneration associated with any form of damage, foreseen or unforeseen, associated with the proper commercial or artistic use of these images unless it can be shown that said reproduction was maliciously caused, produced and published for the sole purpose of subjecting the Model to conspicuous ridicule, scandal, reproach, scorn and indignity.

I acknowledge that the videotaping/photography session was conducted in a completely proper and highly professional manner, and this release was willingly signed at its termination. I certify that I am not a minor, and if a minor, have permission from my parent or legal guardian signed below, and am free and able to give such consent.
