A Note from Rick: Markets continued to stabilize at TLA this week. I would say this applies to all of our markets here at TLA over the last 3 weeks. There are still slight ups and downs in each of our individual markets, but as a whole there is a sense of stability. That is a very welcome feeling to have, as it's been a concerning couple of months. The highlight on Tuesday was definitely the feeder sale. Both the dairy heifer and feeder steer markets were very active and prices were as good as we've seen in quite a while. The calf market was stronger, while the slaughter market was steady. The weather is not wanting to cooperate with spring farming that needs to be done, but so far I'd say we are in a lot better shape weather wise than we were last year. We can't wait until horse sales begin next week. See you at TLA!

HAPPY MEMORIAL DAY
