MISSIONS NIGHT GUEST SPEAKER

On Wednesday night, March 21, a representative of the Wilmington Area Leadership Foundation will be with us to give a presentation entitled "Outside the Walls (OTW)." OTW is a faith-based initiative that is bringing about changes to the Wilmington area by recruiting and training mentors to develop one-on-one relationships with at-risk youth.

EASTER EGG HUNT

The church Easter Egg Hunt will be Saturday, April 7th from 10 am-1 pm at Mr. Harrell's house. We need donations from the church of candy and juice boxes. If anyone would like to help, please let Debbie Harrell know.

MOVING THROUGH THE NEW TESTAMENT

Tonight Pastor Danny continues the series "Moving Through the New Testament - The Five Major Trips During Jesus' Public Ministry." Tonight will be "The Third Circuit—Miracle on the Boat.

53 SUNDAYS 2012
Missionaries to Pray for, Points to Ponder

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes."
Romans 1:16

A missionary in Africa told how he was teaching Bible stories to children outside under a shade tree. Suddenly, a man walked out of the jungle and stood looking at them. He was fierce-looking, and carried a spear. He wore only a bit of rough cloth around his middle. The missionary hurried to look for a translator; it took a while to find someone who could speak a bit of the man's language.

Finally, they were able to communicate with him. He asked what was going on; who was this unusual-looking white man talking to the African children? Through the translator, the missionary explained the story of Jesus and how he had come to share this Good News about Him. He talked for many minutes.

The man listened intently, but he never softened his fierce expression. Finally, the man shook his head. No, he told them. This cannot possibly be true. This is a wonderful story indeed, but it cannot be true. "I am an old man. If your story were true, you would have come a long time ago to tell me about it," he said. And the man turned and walked back into the jungle and was never seen again.

When we treat the precious Gospel as something cheap, when we do not act with urgency to share it; when we do not enthusiastically support missions through the Cooperative Program and other channels, we tell the world that our story is not true. The Bible says the Gospel is the power of salvation to everyone who believes.

Missionary Highlight

Lynn & Jan, IMB Missionaries, Kampala, Uganda

Lynn Skuza and his wife, Jan, were quietly retired until God called them to an often rough-and-tumble ministry in Kampala, capital city of the African nation of Uganda. More than 15 million people live in this city.

Top ministry for the Skuzas is working in Kampala's abundant slums. They work constantly to lead fathers to become family spiritual leaders as the Bible teaches.

Some days, the Skuzas provide medical care; other days they conduct Vacation Bible Schools. When they offer help, the people often ask why the Americans have come there. "Because God the Father loves you and sent me not only to tell you, but to show you!" Lynn answers,

Let us pray for the Skuzas as they serve in this difficult place. Our Cooperative Program giving is helping them be there.

MOVIE NIGHT

Call the church this week if you are coming to movie night. This will help us know how much popcorn and drinks to prepare.
