Announcements

General:

Next Sunday there is a special collection: Support the Church in Central & Eastern Europe.

A reminder that daily Mass has resumed: Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at 11:00am at Nativity. Masks and distancing are still the expectation, and safety protocols are the same as for the weekend Masses.

Father Mark wants to remind everyone of the expectation that those attending Mass must sign up and wear a mask. Following the guidelines from the Archdiocese is important if we want to keep our churches open.

Individual contribution statements for 2020 taxes available in the hall. The family name is on the envelope. Also, contribution envelopes for 2021 are available. They are in the hall. Please contact the parish office to make arrangements to pick yours up.

To maintain safety, there is limited space in the church to ensure safe physical distancing. Therefore, attendance is kept, and you need to sign-up to attend a particular weekend Mass. For Nativity contact Ron Haley at 503-396-1212, and for St. Johns contact Kathy Reandean at 503-728-3149. Please note that face masks are currently required. See Fr. Mark for additional information or questions.

Nativity:

Bible Study – Bible Study meets every Wednesday at 6:30pm in the hall. Physical distancing is in place. Attendance is limited to about 6-7 individuals. Please contact William Stahl at 503-556-3717 for details.

Please don't forget to contribute to HOPE, especially during this time.

St. Johns:

Don't forget to contribute to Turning Point, especially during this time.

Funerals continued:

Deceased members of the Catholic faithful must be given ecclesiastical funerals according to the norm of law.

In the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon a priest or minister may not refuse funeral rites for a Catholic without the permission of the local Ordinary.

When it concerns funerals, catechumens must be counted among the Catholic faithful.

Manifest sinners can be granted ecclesiastical funerals in cases where there will not be a public scandal of the faithful (for example, persons in irregular marriages).

The current Code of Canon Law does not prohibit an ecclesiastical funeral for someone who dies by suicide and the Order of Christian Funerals makes provision for such person. For the purpose of arranging a funeral, a victim of suicide should be treated in the same manner as someone who dies of an untreated or incurable illness.

Those who have expressed in some way their desire to receive Baptism, even though they have not been received formally into the catechumenate, may be counted as catechumens, since they would have been entitled to Baptism in danger of death.

The local ordinary can permit children whom the parents intended to baptize but who died before Baptism to be given ecclesiastical funerals. Moreover, in the Archdiocese of Portland, pastors and parochial vicars have the faculty to “allow Church funeral rites for an unbaptized child whose parents had intended to have the child baptized.” The Order of Christian Funerals provides special prayers to be used in these circumstances.

In the prudent judgment of the local ordinary, the funeral rites of the Catholic Church may be granted to members of a non-Catholic Church or ecclesial community, unless it is evidently contrary to their will and provided that their own minister is unavailable. Moreover, in the Archdiocese of Portland, pastors and parochial vicars have the faculty to allow Church funeral rites “for baptized members of non-Catholic ecclesial communities if requested by the family and provided this is not clearly contrary to the wishes of the deceased.” In such a case: A. Their own minister is considered unavailable if the deceased has not participated in their own denomination for some time. B. If a Funeral Mass is to be celebrated, the name of the deceased should not be mentioned in the Eucharistic Prayer, since such commemoration presupposes Full Communion with the Catholic Church.

Certainly, those baptized non-Catholics who have expressed the desire to be received into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church may be granted the Church’s funeral rites.

Unbaptized persons who in some way were considered close to the Church but who died before receiving Baptism can also be given an ecclesiastical funeral, according to the prudent judgment of the local ordinary.

In the case of someone who is not allowed an ecclesiastical funeral, a priest, deacon or parish minister may lead a service of prayer for the deceased, with readings from Sacred Scripture, at the cemetery or in the funeral director’s chapel.
