Why Do We Do That?

Question: I get annoyed with myself when I am distracted while I pray. Is it a sin? How can I be more attentive?

Answer:

The mind is a marvelous and complex thing, producing amazing thoughts, images, wisdom and inspiration. Yet at times it is like a two-year-old: it does not follow directions, does what it wants and loves to tell us “no!” This is probably the oldest and most common problem in the spiritual life-dealing with distraction. It comes in all forms: good intentions forgotten, wandering thoughts at Mass, daydreaming, etc. A little poem says it all: When the soul begins to pray, the brain always wants to play!

There are many ways to handle distractions. If we are distracted by thoughts about our families or friends, we should pray for them. If we lose our focus, we need just “re-collect” ourselves. If some worry or concern just won't leave our mind, then we deal with it and come back to prayer or make it part of our prayer. And when words just won't come, the only prayer we might offer is our presence, our suffering, and our desire to be close to the Lord. Most importantly, we need to be patient with ourselves. These things are not sinful, but reminders of our human frailty. Our weaknesses and good efforts are all acceptable to God, who reads the love in our hearts and the good intentions of our minds.

Ash Wednesday Mass Schedule: 8:00 AM & 6:00 PM

Ash Wednesday is February 17th. The Vatican has given permission for the ashes to be received ONLY by a very light sprinkling upon the head (no physical touch of forehead or head) of ashes. Those who wish to be sprinkled with ashes should come forward like Communion. Father will sprinkle without saying anything. This custom is not a new practice as it is the norm in many parts of the world.

Families in Faith: Reconciliation

Please keep our young children preparing for this Sacrament in your prayers. They are nearing the completion of their preparation and will receive this beautiful Sacrament for the first time in February.

January 31st: Reconciliation Class only

February 7th: FIF Group A

The Domestic Church at Home

How is your family living the faith at home? The year is still new, this is only the 4th Sunday of Ordinary time. Think about ways your family can start living the faith at home. Perhaps you can gather as a family before bed time to read the Gospel from the day, or say family prayers together.

Coming this week:

This week we celebrate the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This marks 40 days after the birth of Jesus, and is also called Candlemas. As a family gather together to read Luke 2:22-35, which tells of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. We're half way to the spring equinox. How is the hope of spring a reflection of the hope that Jesus brings us?

Catholic Schools Week

Today begins Catholic School's week (January 31 – February 6). January 31 is the feast of St. John Bosco, patron saint of school children. This week ask St. John Bosco to intercede for the continued health and safety of our children.

Saint Blaise

On the feast of Saint Blaise the church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats. Blaise is said to have saved the life of a boy who was choking on a fish bone. The saint said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. He is listed among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints revered as healers. He is the patron saint of throat illnesses, animals, wool combers, and wool trading.
