

Why Facebook?

1. How to set up Facebook

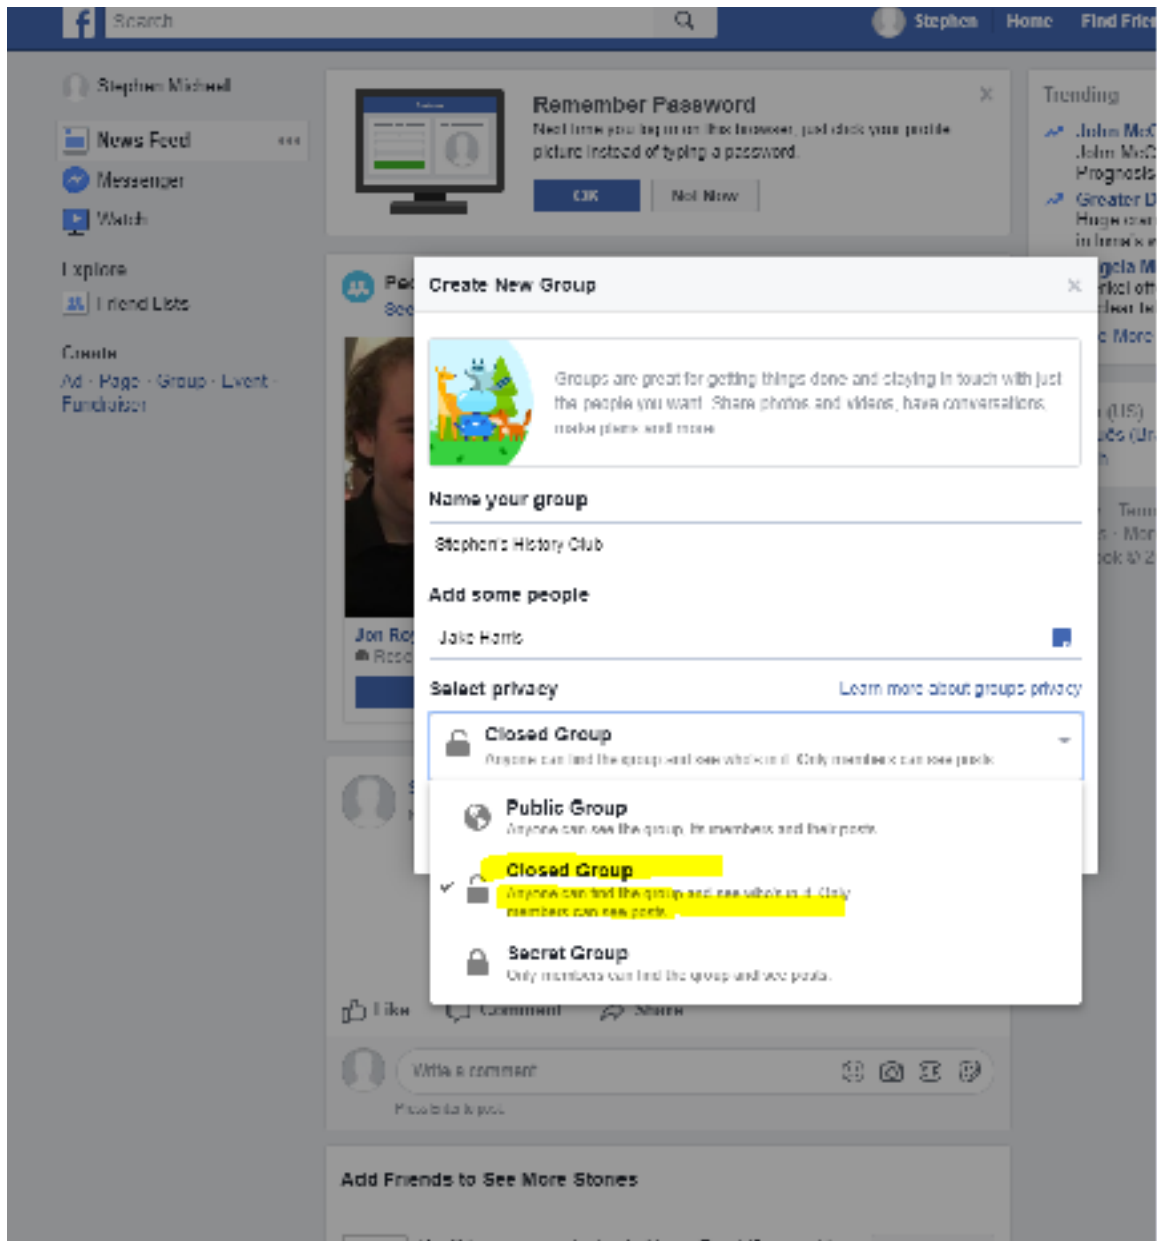

Why should we use Facebook and what is the difference between a personal page and a group?

2. Creating a Group

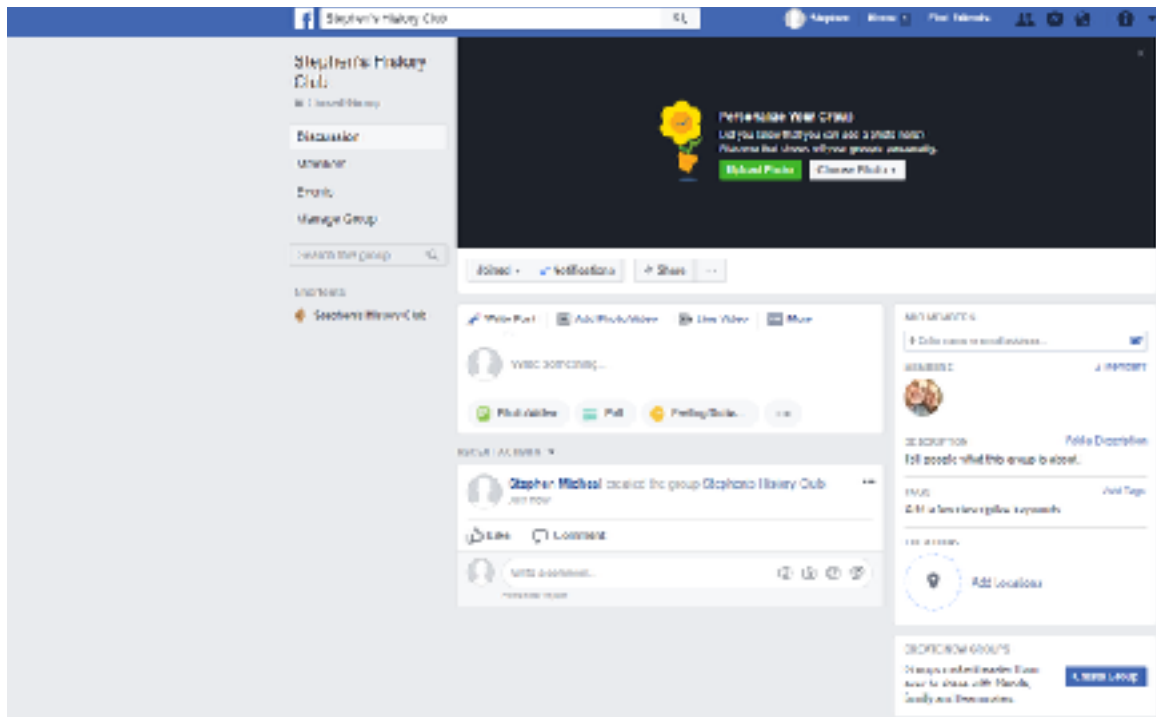

The image shows a screenshot of a Facebook profile page for Stephen Michael. The page layout includes a top navigation bar with the Facebook logo, a search bar, and the user's name 'Stephen Michael' along with 'Home' and 'Find Friends' options. On the left side, there is a navigation menu with options like 'News Feed', 'Messenger', 'Watch', 'Explore', and 'Friend Lists'. A yellow sticky note is placed over the 'Create' button in the 'Explore' section, with the text 'Create' and 'Ad Page Group Event' visible. The main content area features a 'Remember Password' notification, a 'People You May Know' section with suggestions for Jen Roy-Muor and Genae Paperty, and a birthday announcement for Stephen Michael: 'Born on November 15, 1995'. The right side of the page shows a 'Trending' section with news articles and a language selection menu.

What are the advantages of a group?

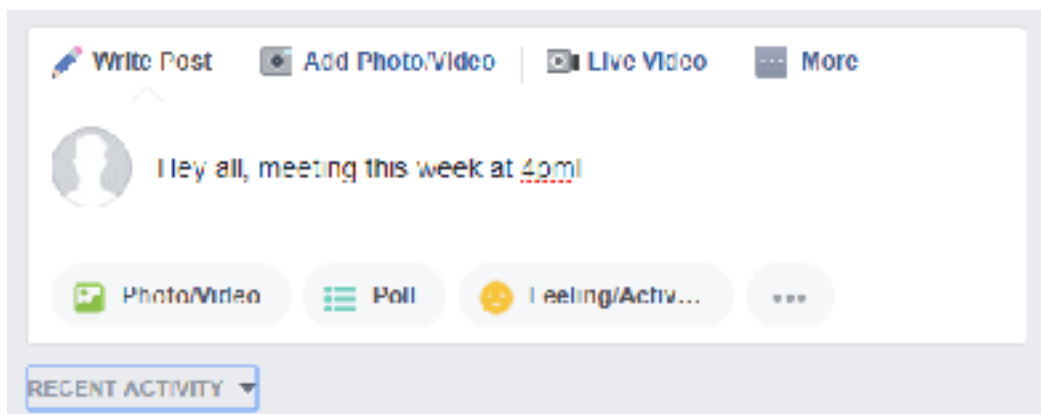

Closed vs. Public group:

3. Group Settings

What to add to make it look aesthetically pleasing?

What to post and who can see it?

Other Notes: