ALL SAINTS /VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION

This coming Sunday, Deacon Mike Ryan will be in the pulpit as we celebrate All Saints and Veteran's Day. There had been consideration some slight changes for this week and next, but we will "stick with the script," so to speak, and have the Order of Service be Divine Service One. However, I've decided to slightly change my preaching schedule. The following Sunday, we will have a service dedicated to Veteran's Day wholly.

On the second Sunday, we will honor Ray Wans, a member of our congregation who served at Pearl Harbor and survived the bombing by the Japanese on that fateful day in history.

This coming Sunday, part of the theme will be "For God and Country." We want to honor all veterans. If you will email Pastor Anderson pictures of yourself, or even a relative, that served in the military, we will honor their service this coming Sunday. PLEASE send me those pictures by email no later than this coming Thursday at noon.

We are working to make the following Sunday as special. We hope to have the colors presented, all of the military songs, recognition of those who served, and a service that will reflect that. Please come ready on both Sundays as we remember that freedom, while wonderful, is never free.

Give us this day our daily bread: What is “daily bread?” Luther said it so beautifully during the Reformation! It is all we need to live. Even during this crisis, God is taking care of each of us.

We remember in prayer:

Guy Binder, hospitalized in Dallas

Francis Schelm, hospice

Rose Mino, health & mobility issues

Ray Wans, health and mobility

Ron Wampler, relief from pain

Kathy Lawson, health

Henry Schankenbergl, health issues

Alan Boehm, cancer

Richard Dickinson, cancer

Kim Bayley, cancer

For our government, and all who govern

For our military, especially David Wampler as he serves in Iraq

Grace Latheran, that we would seek God's will here, both personally and as a congregation.

For our world

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer!

Please remember to email Pastor A. with prayer requests before Friday noon to be included in the bulletin.
