

Good morning!

Take a look at today's clip here.

What did you see? Family.....basketball.....what could be better! Until we get a little more 'experienced' in this wonderful avocation, we don't appreciate or realize that out officiating family is a big reason many of us stay in it. Our families at home deserve our time during the holidays.....TAKE/MAKE the time for family and loved ones over Christmas and New Year's this year.....don't take it for granted.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Have a great game tonight!
