

NICHOLAS JAMES CASTOR

1914 -1990

Nicholas James Castor, age 76 of Pigeon, passed away Saturday March 17 at the Midland Medical Center.

He was born Dec. 2, 1914 in Mason Town, Penn., son of the late John and Mary (Latsko) Kostura. He was united in marriage to Gertrude F. (Hanlon) on April 30, 1938 in Bay City.

Mr. Castor moved to Detroit in 1935. He was employed with the Sears, Roebuck Co. in 1947 in Highland Park and was later transferred to their store at the Oakland Mall in Troy. He retired in 1981 after serving 34 years in the furniture division.

He moved to Sand Point in 1983. He was a member of the Kowanis, Caseville and Fraternal Order of Elks and a Mason in Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Gertrude; two sons Robert (Lindsay) Castor of Nashville, Tenn. and James Castor of Caseville; two grandchildren; one brother, Mike Kostura of Mason Town Penn.; two sisters, Velma (Don) Kelley of Greensboro, Penn. and Irene (Harry) Diehl, Dallas, Texas.

He was preceded in death by one son, Michael and three brothers.

Private funeral services were arranged by the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville.