Join Pastor Sandy on this slow reading and discussion of the classic theological work Jesus and the Disinherited by the Rev. Dr. Howard Thurman. First published in 1949, this deeply spiritual work laid the foundation for a nonviolent civil rights movement and continues to encourage and inspire many today.

We will begin with a community conversation by leading Howard Thurman scholar Dr. Walter Fluker and Duke University Chapel Dean Luke Powery on Tuesday, April 6 @ 7 PM via Zoom.

In the subsequent weeks, we will dive into this small 102-page work, learning from the wisdom of a love rooted in the "deep river of faith" and explore what keeps us from engaging in God's radically transformative love with one another.

Contact Pastor Sandy (mkim@nccumc.org) for more information and to register.

The study meets Tuesdays from 7-8:15 PM, starting April 6, 2021, on Zoom.
