Proud Sponsors of XC Thrillology Events

Becoming a sponsor...

Kenosha Running Company Inc. has created a foundation of running events that are unique, well managed and in an environment that creates value for our runners, guests and sponsors. That value comes in traditional ways as well as in creative "social" approaches – and all with a personal touch.

The XC Thrillology events attract runners throughout the Midwest. We have developed an extensive database and we also promote our events at numerous other running events throughout the year and with cooperating race management companies. We market our sponsors before and beyond race day – with targeted e-mails to our database segments, by using social media to its fullest extent, and through personal presentations to select running clubs and at running events. All of this means you will get greater value for your sponsorship investment.
