

Government by God's Design

A workshop for Christians in politics

Greater St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church
1801 Second Avenue
Lake Charles, LA 70601

If you are involved in politics and want to know more about honoring God in your role, this workshop is for you. These sessions are open to all elected officials and candidates.

Each session references multiple Biblical passages specifically identified to speak to Christians in politics.

Learn how to make your point without losing your witness and how to respect varying Biblical viewpoints.

Session 1 – Wednesday, August 24, 2016 8:00 am - noon
Biblical guidance and historical perspective

Session 2 – Wednesday, August 31, 2016 8:00 am - noon
Biblical worldview and religious liberties

Session 3 – Wednesday, September 7, 2016 8:00 am - noon
Christian engagement and collaboration

Presenters: Reverend Samuel Tolbert Jr., Judge Charlie Schrupf, Dr. Bruce Baker, Louisiana State Director Concerned Women for America Sancha Smith, Pastor Michael Stewart, Dr. Ronnie Burke, Mayor Randy Roach and more!

Facilitator: Nancy Tower, author of Government By God's Design curriculum.

Light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

No fee for this inaugural event. Donations to cover costs will be accepted at the event.

Please bring your Bible or electronic access to Biblical references.

RSVP required by August 18 to ntower@centurytel.net or 337-842-7849. This inaugural workshop will be limited to only 20 participants. Reserve your seat today!

Government by God's Design is a project of Concerned Women for America of Louisiana
P.O. Box 2446 | Opelousas, LA 70571 director@louisiana.cwfa.org | la.cwfa.org | 337-308-8696