

Printing Instructions and Permissions for At Home Through the Triduum
Printable Booklet Edition, Five Thousand Copies
© 2020 Epiclesis Press

Permissions for Printing and Use:

- Purchase of At Home Through the Triduum—A Three-Day Home Retreat for People Physically Separated from the Triduum Liturgies (printable booklet edition) includes permission to print 5000 (five thousand) copies for non-commercial use, and to reprint replacements for copies lost, damaged, or worn out with use. Although the separate Ebook edition is recommended for electronic use, permission is granted to substitute electronic copies for up to the licensed number of printed copies.
- Permission is NOT granted for printing additional copies or distributing additional electronic copies for simultaneous use. If you would like to use additional copies, please purchase a license for the number you require.
 - Bulk pricing may be available. Contact Epiclesis Press at www.EpiclesisPress.com for more information.

Printing Instructions:

- Printable editions are designed to be printed in duplex (two-sided) mode in landscape (horizontal) orientation. Although a variety of software is available for printing pdf files, Epiclesis Press recommends Adobe Acrobat (which has not paid for this recommendation). On a Mac, the “binding” setting should be set on “Short Side” to ensure that the duplex feature prints correctly.
- Collated copies should then be folded in half to form a booklet. If desired, a long-arm stapler may be used to place one or two staples in the spine of each booklet.

If You Find This Resource Valuable

- To learn more about our company and our available products and services, visit our website: www.EpiclesisPress.com

Epiclesis Press
wishes all spiritual riches
to you and your faith community!