The $50 Billion Empowerment Tour featuring Maggie Anderson and Eugene Mitchell is a movement to create $50 Billion in Black Wealth and 1 million jobs from increased spending with Black businesses.

Eugene Mitchell, VP at New York Life, and Creator of the $50 Billion Empowerment Movement. His vision is to change the financial landscape of Black America by uniting and informing the families, businesses, churches, and institutions ready to build wealth and creating legacies for future generations.

Margarita Anderson, is the acclaimed author of "Our Black Year". Her family made history and dominated headlines with their yearlong stand living off Black businesses. 'The Empowerment Experiment' is now a global movement to support Black businesses and empower Black communities.
