WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship: Get to Know Jesus

No matter how much you read about a person, you will only have a glimpse as to the real people. It will take an actual relationship with one of them to get you to the point where you can say you know them.

That is the same way with Jesus. First, more Catholics need to read more and learn more about Jesus. Second, too many of us in the Church can explain who Jesus is from our past formation classes and reading, but we do not actually know him. Jesus is a real being who is alive! He is not dead, but alive! He calls us to do more than read about him. He calls us into an intimate relationship with him. We grow in relationship with Jesus by worshipping at the Mass, spending time with him in adoration, resting in him in the quiet, and by having the Jesus in us meet the Jesus in others. If you do not know him personally, get to know him.

MINISTRIES AND SACRAMENTS

Music Ministry
fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

Who is the principle music minister? Music ministers might imagine that the music director, the cantor, or the organist is the principle minister of music. Some choir members may see themselves as the ones who provide music for the liturgy. In many ways these are true. But two references in our liturgical documents give us a different way of understanding who the primary music ministers in our assemblies are. Liturgical Music Today says, "The entire worshiping assembly exercises a ministry of music". Second, Sing to the Lord states that the congregation's unrehearsed community singing "is the primary song of the Liturgy". Father Tom recently brought this article excerpt to my attention and I think it reminds us of that active participation that we are supposed to have not just in singing, but in all parts of the Mass. We don't come to Mass as observers like at a movie or a sporting event, but as participants. This participation is a gift for us because it helps us grow in holiness, but it is also a gift to our brothers and sisters who are uplifted and inspired by our example.

Our next musician's scheduling meeting will be Tuesday August 27th at 5:30 pm before the Musician's Potluck.

Daily Mass Music: Wednesday, August 28th 6 PM

Diocesan Bulletin Bite:

“I do not know where you are from.”

What will we do if Jesus speaks those words to us when we finally meet him? Will our face go pale and our knees buckle? Will we be very frightened? Will we mumble, “I ate and drank in your company and you taught me”? What if Jesus ask us, “But what did you learn? Did you eat and drink in the company of the hungry, the homeless, the naked, the oppressed, the diseased? Do they know where you are from?” If people in need in our world know where we are from, Jesus will know where we are from. He will recognize us right away. He will be anxiously waiting for us to enter into his presence. Jesus is very clear: “People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at the table in the Kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.” Where do we want Jesus to call us to sit in the God’s Kingdom, first or last?

Escape to the Mount with Trivia, Quilt Bingo and more Sept. 7-8: Saturday, Sept. 7, we will play Trivia from 4-7 p.m.; Sunday, Sept. 8, we will play Quilt Bingo to win quilts from noon to 3 p.m. Register your Trivia team for $25 per person, up to 10 people per team.
