Atlanta's Public Access Cable Channel, People TV Atlanta, Hosts Tour for African Journalists

ATLANTA, GA (August 10, 2015) – People TV Atlanta recently hosted a tour of African Journalists. The tour was coordinated by the Georgia Council for International Visitors at the request of the U.S. Department of State’s International Visitor Leadership Program. The journalists were visiting People TV for the opportunity to expand their knowledge on journalism in a democratic society and for professional development.

People TV’s Managing Director, Teddy Lewis lead a tour of the facility along with a presentation and answered questions about People TV’s work in community media. The journalists were also keenly interested in developing an ongoing relationship in which to provide a platform for the sharing of their work.

People TV is excited about this new relationship and the opportunity to work and share together!
