Psalm 40: 6

Psalm 50: 14

Proverbs 21: 3

Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!”

“Here I am,” he replied.

<sup>2</sup>Then God said, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love—Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you.”

Worship Reflections -- Two Weeks In

We've been open for worship in the sanctuary for two weeks now, and I have a few reflections on how it's going.

- It's taking us a bit to get used to social distancing, i.e., no touching, handshaking, or hugging, staying six feet apart, but we're getting there
- We are wearing our face masks
- It goes against the grain to not sing, chant, or recite in unison, but by the end of last Sunday's service we were getting it down
- We have a good system for attendance tracking
- We are doing a good job with disinfecting and sanitizing frequently touched surfaces
- We are responsibly following Hawaii UCC Conference and CDC guidelines for public worship

We continue to live stream the worship service, and for now, I reiterate that one may have a high quality worship experience from home. The Holy Spirit binds us together no matter where we are geographically.
