Bright Ocean fresh Chinook caught in the lower Skeena. The river is in great shape this year this time. It is usually high and dirty due to heavy snow melt off. Not a lot of snow this winter.

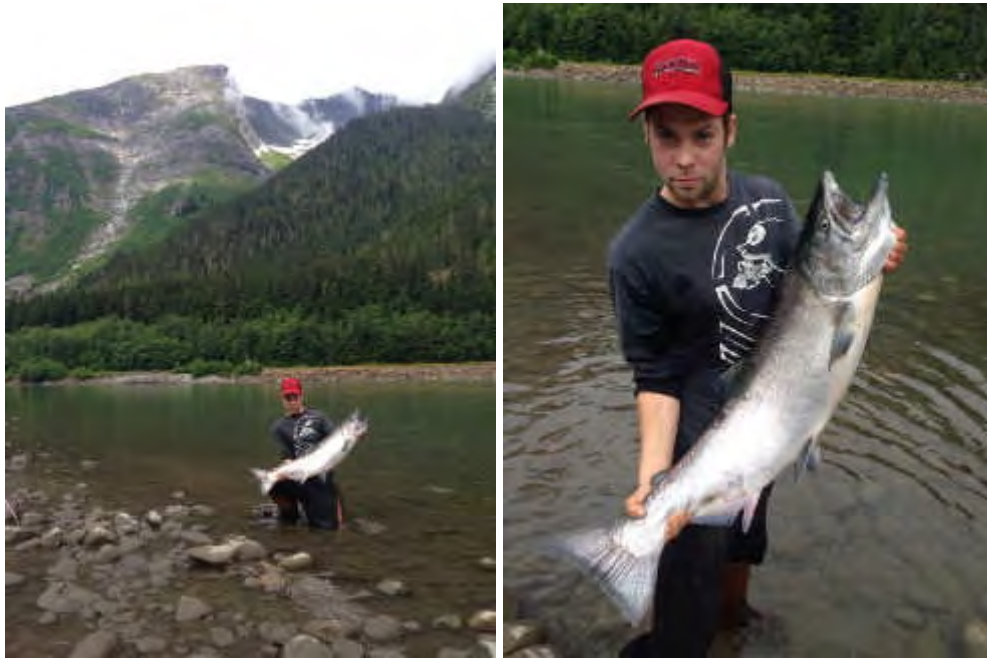

Couple pics below from my latest catch:

See you on the river soon! More reports to come on other rivers and oceans too, please stay tuned...

Connor Sabo Fishing Report Skeena River - June 18, 2016 2:51pm

Fun times on the lower Skeena with friends, I got the pleasure of netting some great fish for great people and even caught a few of my own! The, very, very comfortable and speedy jet boat made by Neid in Terrace BC got us to the "hot spot" quickly!
