A Note from Rick: Nothing really exciting to report on the markets at TLA this week. Markets were steady with the exception of slaughter cows. Cows were $2-$3 stronger and have been slowly creeping back up. These slight weekly increases in price have been consistent for 4 weeks now and have added up to nearly $10. We're still not quite where we were in September but hopefully we'll get back there soon. The feeder market was not as consistent as it's been the last several months. We did have some cattle that sold very well but as a whole prices were a little softer. This doesn't come as a big surprise with rising feed costs. The Organic Dairy sale on Thursday was very consistent with the conventional market, in my opinion. We had some really good cattle that sold very well. We're putting the final touches on our sale catalogs for December. We've got the Dutch Cross Christmas and the Breeder's Edition catalogs in hand and are finishing up the Miller Yoder this week. Have a Happy and safe Thanksgiving from all of us here, hope to see you at TLA!
