Psalms 19:12-14 (KJV)

"(12) Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. (13) Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. (14) Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer."

A SMILE IS A GREAT ENCOURAGER

A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that they can get along without it, and none is so poor but they can be made rich by it.

A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discourage, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen; for it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile, so give them one of yours; as none needs a smile so much as the one who has no more to give.

Have you been or are you grumpy today? Ask God for a double dose of His joy and then put a smile on your face. Let people know you refuse to take on the negativism and cynicism of the world and that the devil cannot and will not get you down. For you are a child of God's. You can be cheerful and pass that cheer on to others with just a simple smile...
