Recent Events

Sheila Noll, Chairman of the York County Board of Supervisors, shared activities that the County has funded recently and some of the thinking of how they're spending our money.

Historian Michael Moore spoke to the club about Lee Hall Depot and the impact of the Depot on the railways and the building of the Peninsula. As always, Michael was a fascinating fount of information.

York-Poquoson Sherriff Danny Diggs spoke about the Department and a little about why he's running for the State Senate. A good, informative session.

Barbara Shefelton, a chaplain with Mary Immaculate Hospital, described problems and means to care for those suffering from the early onset of Alzheimer's . A very informative talk!
