

Craig, Neva

Neva Lucille Craig, 88, longtime Elkton resident, died Saturday morning, December 27, 2003, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility. She was born August 24, 1915 at the home of her parents, the late Edward and Florence (Fitchett) Harrison in Lake Township. Neva was a hard working woman. She raised and cared for eight children. She enjoyed cooking and visiting with friends and family. Surviving are three daughters, Darlene Overmyer and her husband, Keith, of Elsie, Linda Woycik, of Warren, and Donna Kopah, of Bad Axe; her son, Terry Craig, of Austin, Texas; six grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and a sister-in-law, Eldora Harrison, of Bad Axe. Preceding her in death were three sons, Don, Virgil, and Eddie; a daughter, Arla; and three brothers, Glenn, Edward, and Lee. Private services with family were conducted Sunday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton, with burial in the Chandler Township Cemetery. Friends may sign the guest book at www.CFCelkton.com.