

Article IV CORPORATION OFFICERS

Section 1

Management of the Corporation shall be vested in the Corporation Officers, who shall conduct the business of the Corporation. The Officers shall have the authority to delegate specific duties and responsibilities to themselves and committee members, provided that such administrative policy does not conflict with action taken by the membership at duly noticed and convened meetings.

Section 2

The number of elected Officers shall be four: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Each Officer must be a member of the WLRP committee.

Section 3

Each Officer shall be elected by ballot of the members of the Corporation and shall hold office for a term of two (2) years from the date of his/her election and until her/his successor is elected. The Officers shall be eligible for re-nomination and election as many times as the members of the Corporation may desire.

Section 4

Vacancies in office shall be appointed by the Officers for the remainder of the former officer's term.

Section 5

Officers shall attend all WLRP committee meetings or send due notice of non-attendance. An officer absent from three (3) consecutive committee meetings without due cause shall be subject to expulsion from office.

Section 6

Officers shall have the duties and powers of Directors under the organization of the 501(c)3.

Article V OFFICER DUTIES

Section 1

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Corporation. S/he may appoint a chair of all committees that may be created, and s/he shall have the general powers and duties usually vested in the office of President of the Corporation. As the need arises, the President shall appoint special committees who shall report to the Officers upon completion of their work.

Section 2

The Vice-President shall act in the President's place when the President is absent and shall perform other duties and functions customarily performed by the Vice-President.

Section 3

The Treasurer shall receive all monies of the Corporation and have custody hereof. He/she shall cause to be kept a full account of all monies received and paid out and shall make such reports thereof to the WLRP committee as required.

Section 4

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all Corporation meetings and shall perform the duties and functions customarily performed by the Secretary.

Section 5

All Officers shall at the termination of their tenure turn over forthwith to their successors all papers, materials and documents of their office in the Wôpanâak Language Reclamation Project.
