Chariots and horses

“Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,” proclaims Psalm 20:7 (NKJV). “But we will remember the name of the LORD our God.” Do these antiquated modes of transportation make this verse irrelevant to us? Not if we broaden our notion of chariots and horses.

Some trust in fancy cars, boats, bikes or snowmobiles for status or entertainment. Some trust in big houses, expensive furniture or high-end fashion to feel important. Some trust in investments or a promised inheritance for security. Some trust in food, painkillers or alcohol to feel good — for a while. Some trust in military might, academic degrees, sports, relationships and so much more.

Let’s help one another trust instead in the name — and trustworthiness — of our God. Even the psalmist didn’t do so alone; verse 7 says “we.” We need friends, Christian mentors and, above all, the Holy Spirit to assist us. In God we’ll find our answers, our strength and our purpose.

The harvest matters

When we think of autumn the things that first come to mind is: sweater weather, the colorful changing landscape of the hills that surround us and the return of school schedules and football season. We trade our sandals in for fall boots and the tall socks that we've lived without for the last few balmy months. We trade our iced tea in for pumpkin flavored coffee. We trade our summer ease in for a back to business attitude to take care of business.

Vacation is over.

The school bell has rung.

It is time for things to get back to "normal".

In the church world, we also begin making needed shifts in attention and energy to plan for Sunday School classes, mission efforts for "God's work, our hands" Sunday and committees come together in anticipation of preparing budgets for the new fiscal year to come.

Ecclesiastes 3 says this, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven."

This is the season of harvest, it is a time to gather and prepare for the winter ahead – but it also is a time of celebration.

As a teenager I chose autumn as my favorite season for its breezy days, the hayrides, the new pencils sharpened perfectly, and for the richness of the colors in nature. For me, autumn is a return to some greater sense of schedule and order, but it also is a time to pause and at the wonder and beauty of this incredibly seasonal Summer is over. Time to officially remember what day of the week it is!

"Labor Day is a glorious holiday because your child will be going back to school the next day. It would have been called Independence Day, but that name was already taken." (Bill Dodds)

Receiving new textbooks, one student to another:
"Psst. How do you turn this thing on?"

Parent: "What did you learn today?" Kindergarten: "Not enough. I have to go back tomorrow."

pastor con't..

place we call home – Chautauqua County.

In this season of harvest, color and school schedules, what will you celebrate? As our parish moves forward in worship, as our committees meet and our councils lead – what would you like to celebrate? What are the things your heart happily anticipates for Tree of Life in this season of harvest?

On Sunday September 11th, we will kick off the return of Sunday School for children as well as for adults. Later that afternoon, our parish will participate in "God's work, our hands" Sunday by helping the YWCA Team program with a diaper and pull up drive (sizes 2,3,4, and 5) as well as a painting party to spruce up their offices. This is just one day in our autumn harvest that I'm already looking forward to and I hope you will celebrate too!

In worship, our committees, council, community and beyond we are called to celebrate the season – this harvest – and fully engage in the wonders it holds for each and every one of us at Tree of Life.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven."

This autumn is a time of harvest to relish in – this is a gift from God, this season. Let's celebrate the harvest – this time matters.

Walking in grace, Pastor Tara L. Eastman

God's Work, Our Hands Sunday 2016

On September 11th, 2016, Tree of Life Lutheran Community will be participating in a national ELCA event called "God's Work, Our Hands".

We will be painting the hallways of the YWCA Team Program building from 12:30-3pm. A Thrivent Action Grant was made to supply some monies for paint, rollers and snacks for the workers.

If you are not able to paint with us on the 11th, we will also be holding a drive for infant diapers, wipes and pull-ups for the children participating in the TEAM program. (sizes 2,3,4,5 please)

The TEAM Program provides education, counseling and supportive services for pregnant teens, teen mothers, and their children. TEAM makes it possible for young women to complete their high school education while also concentrating on prenatal care and parenting education.

Monetary donations for our "God's Work, Our Hands" Project will be accepted to help with needed supplies or go towards the Diaper drive. Please contact Paula Hofgren for more details on this project.

ESTHER CICLE WILL MEET WED., SEPT. 7 AT

1:30PM in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church library.

BIBLE STUDY will be "JONAH and the terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day"
from Sept Gather magazine

P R O M I S E W H E E L

This craft will remind you that God is always with you.

What you need:

- A large round bowl
- 2 large pieces of construction paper
- A pen
- Scissors
- A ruler
- A brad
- A Bible or search engine

What you do:

1. Turn the bowl upside down and trace around it on both pieces of paper.
2. Cut out the circles. Draw a dot in the center of each.
3. On one circle, trace and cut out two 2" squares opposite each other, with the dot in the middle.
4. Align the dots and place the brad through both circles.
5. In the space left by one square, write a fear you have. Then write a comforting Bible verse in the other square.
6. Rotate the circle to a new blank space, and write another fear and verse.

Modern miracles

At the mention of miracles, we often picture the biblical kind: a dead person brought back to life, a small amount of food feeding a crowd, sight restored to a blind man. Yet even today we look for unexpected healings or an earthquake victim found alive after days amid rubble.

But consider someone born with poor eyesight who, thanks to technology, can work as a professional proofreader or create intricate digital paintings. Consider someone with a prosthetic leg who can run and even win races. Consider someone who, thanks to a donated heart, kidney or blood, continues to live. Consider friends in the United States and Europe who can connect in "real time," offering support during a crisis.

Technology — whose source is the human brain created by God — makes possible a new, modern-day type of miracle. When used for good, it can overcome barriers, allowing us to celebrate life and serve one another. Miracles, indeed!

THE LORD WILL PROTECT

God always watches over us, during good times and bad.

Directions: Connect the dots, according to the instructions below. Then use the resulting word to complete the Bible verse.

Start at 19. Draw from 19-18, 18-17, 47-62, 62-77, 22-21, 21-20, 50-51, 82-81, 81-80, 80-65, 65-50, 50-35, 35-20, 24-38, 38-53, 24-40, 40-55, 17-32, 47-48, 32-47, 26-41, 41-56, 56-71, 71-86, 56-57, 57-58, 55-54, 54-53, 53-68, 68-83, 55-70, 70-85, 58-43, 57-73, 73-88, 43-28, 28-27, 27-26.

Our Sympathy to...

Lutheran Disaster Response

Lutheran Disaster Response brings God's hope, healing and renewal to people whose lives have been disrupted by disasters in the United States and around the world. When the dust settles and the headlines change, we stay to provide ongoing assistance to those in need.

We are a church that is a catalyst, convener and bridge builder. Lutheran Disaster Response collaborates with other disaster response organizations and religious entities. This enables the greatest stewardship of resources and maximum impact of response. We are a welcome partner because we respect the perspectives and strengths of others.

We recognize that every disaster is local. Because of this, we believe every response needs to be rooted in the community; we work to accompany that community from immediate relief through long-term recovery. In our international work we partner closely with companion churches and other Lutheran and ecumenical relief agencies to make sure local needs are being addressed and met. In the United States, we work through our extensive affiliate network and other partners to address these same concerns.

Where Lutherans are responding:

Lutheran Disaster Response would not exist if it were not for the thousands, if not millions, of people who make an impact by getting involved. Whether efforts are financial support, volunteering or helping to prepare communities for disasters, lives and livelihoods are improved. YOU are one of the people who helps, just by contributing to your ELCA congregation, which, in turn, sends mission support to its synod. Thank you!

We are church together for the sake of the world. God's work. Our Hands.

HOSPITALIZATIONS

The church office no longer receives calls from the hospital when a member is hospitalized. It would be appreciated if someone from the family would call the church office when a hospitalization occurs. In addition to calls no longer being made to the office by hospital volunteers, the computer used by the clergy at the hospital to locate hospitalized members has been removed. Thank you for your assistance.

In case of hospital emergency, please contact Pastor Eastman at 716 969-3950.

The second Sunday of the month Immanuel will continue to be Food collection and will benefit Holy Trinity's food pantry. Any food will be welcome.

The Providence of God

The seed was sown long months ago,
And through the winter's cold and snow,
We trusted that God's care would bring
The green and tender blade in spring,
Which cherished by the sun and rain
Of summer, now has yielded grain
In autumn, when the reaper leaves
His cot to cut and bind the sheaves ...

So God's great mercies thus abound;
His love still brings the seasons round;
His blessings fill our happy fields,
And all our land its increase yields:
So if we serve him as we should,
Our Lord will give us all things good;
And he who doth the ravens feed
Much more will give us all we need!

Prayer warriors

After tragedies, natural disasters and terrorism, people now commonly turn to social media to request prayers. Although it can feel “jarring” to see “so many references to the divine in spaces normally reserved for vacation photos,” writes journalist Eleanor Barkhorn, it’s a modern-day version of the New Testament’s reminders to pray constantly and in all circumstances.

Over the years, churches have encouraged members to pray through letters, phone chains, prayer breakfasts and prayer groups. “With that context in mind,” Barkhorn writes, “Facebook shouldn’t cheapen prayer any more than the Postal Service or the telephone does.”

Russell Moore of the Southern Baptist Convention says, “Asking for prayer via Twitter or Facebook is no different than calling someone and saying, ‘We should really pray for this.’ ... Social media can be a tremendous force for good in alerting people to things they can be praying about right away.”
