"Encourages a Friend"

This girl named Bella is very depressed. She would try to make new friends, but sadly they would ignore her. One day she met Lucy, her new friend. They would have play dates almost every Saturday. They would go to the park, movies, and to Lucy's house. But, friends don't always last. Bella went up to Lucy and said "hey, so what's up"? Lucy said, "Look, I am very sorry...but we can't be friends". Lucy walked away crying. That's when she started being depressed, but she met a girl like her! And, they were the best of friends. The End! Hope you enjoyed.

Well, the way I would help her is to encourage her and never let go of our friendship.
