The Bible

Do we know all it contains? This short, but wonderful description is printed in the front of the Gideon Testaments:

The Bible contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom on sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are Holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true and its discussions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be saved, and practice it to be Holy.

It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the christian's charter. Here paradise is restored, Heaven opened, and the gates of hell disclosed.

Christ is its grand subject, our good design, and the glory of God its end.

It should fill the memory, rule the earth, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently and prayerfully.

It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened at the Judgment, and be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the greatest labor, and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents.

Abounding in the Work of the Lord

By Gail Schultz

I Cor. 15:58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Be not discouraged, but encouraged, for we are living in the last days and these days however trying, are hours of deliverance for the Children of the Lord. I would like to stir up your pure minds in way of remembrance, although all of us know perfectly well the way, and the truth that is Jesus Christ. When the enemy comes in like a flood the Lord has promised to raise up a standard against him, and as he commanded the proud waves to go so far, and no further, so the Lord has set the domains of lives, powers and forces both good and bad. In the first place we must know that God is on the throne, that He still lives, and has never lost a battle. If He is for us then none can be against us and win. We must always remember that God deals with us directly and individually. Then again take careful note that the wealth and glory of this world does not always mean spiritually. So many are watching, if some loss comes or some success is not gained, then they use such cases as examples and say, "What is the use of serving God?" I wish you could study the Old Testament and note how many times the people had just such thoughts, but we are informed that the poor in this world's goods are often rich in faith. James 2:5. If a christian is going through a trial, none may understand, but that trial is more precious than gold. I Pet. 1:17, Even we who stand in the trial must with a faith vision know that it is for our good and reward. I Pet. 4:12-13. God never fails, for He is God and beside Him there is none other. His love reaches to all, it sent His Son to redeem us, and now the reflected glory of that Son is God's will concerning us. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways are past finding out! Rom. 11:33.

Just as God is our father, so Jesus is our elder brother, and He is so real. The world is upset, many Christians are be set. The waves of unrest and hate are dashing high, and wickedness is dwelling in high places or heavenly places. Eph. 6:12. But in Jesus we are More than conquerors. Rom. 8:37-39. After all flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God. I Cor. 15:50. So again I say, "Let us not look too much on the side of things." There is a spiritual victory that is Christ given, we must seek that life. Let us aagain say, "Sirs, we would see Jesus." For we are to stand fast in the liberty that Christ has given us. Gal. 5:1. Let Christ be formed in us, the hope of Glory. I know that He is our healer, but let us seek above health the spiritual blessings. I know that He will supply our every need, but let us seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. To abound in the work of the Lord, may be to fill a place so lowly that the earth will never note of us at all. Some of the past have suffered mockings, scourgings, imprisonments, have been destitute, afflicted and tormented. The world was not worthy of them (Heb. 11:36-38) but they were of Christ. So many times when tossed about, I know that we are to abound in the Lord, to

Lift Up Your Heads

Jacob C. Reiger

Men of every walk of life know that we are living in dangerous times. Trouble and distress is written on the faces of all. Humanity would like to hide as it were from the troubles as they exist, but there is no place to hide. We must face the truth. "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof: from such turn away." (2 Tim. 3:1-4). This scripture shows us that in the last days we would have times such as we are seeing today. The term "perilous times" certainly could be interpreted to mean, Dangerous Times. Instead of fretting about the terrible conditions of our times we should rejoice as Christians, because we know we are living in the Last Days. The Last Days will bring Redemption to the Elect of God and usher in the Return of Jesus Christ.

Jesus said, "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." (Luke 21:28). To the true believer in Christ, the dangerous (perilous) times in which we live, is the prelude to the most glorious episode to the saints of God recorded in all the story of mankind: REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH! What did Jesus mean when he said, "And when these things begin to come to pass." —? We find the context to this verse of scripture: "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." (Luke 21:25-27). It is quite plain to the believer in Christ that we are living in the times of the signs of which Jesus spoke. There are signs in the sun, moon and stars; there is indeed distress upon earth. The nations are indeed in distress and in perplexity. Men's hearts are failing them as never before, especially so, as they look after those things that are coming upon the earth. Men are worried about economics, politics at home and abroad; fear of enemy attack from within and without. Men are worried about the advance of science in warfare, fearing even that civilization will eventually wipe itself from the earth. Men are worried about their own imaginations. Only the saints of God have true peace of mind. To them, Redemption Draweth Nigh — Lift Up Your Heads!!!

True, redemption is drawing nigh! Year after year since we have been hearing the preaching of the full-gospel truths, we have seen prophecy after prophecy fulfilled. Each year we see more and more Bible Predictions coming to pass. This would seem to awaken men to the realization that "Jesus is Coming Soon", but not so, men are seemingly asleep. Jesus said, "And take heed to yourselves lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares" (Luke 21:34) Is it possible that the people of God will permit the cares of life, drunkenness, and surfeiting keep them from being ready for redemption? Oh no, some will not stoop to drunkenness; but consider surfeiting, are we so bent on eating that it will keep us out of the kingdom? Surely most of us will shun drunkenness, but do we allow the menial tasks of making a living (or cares of this life) cause us to miss redemption? Is it possible that God's people would be asleep and the day of Christ should come upon them unawares? Evidently the Lord knew it would be so. He warned us to be ready: "But ye brethren, are not in darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober." (1 Thess. 5:6).

In the parable in Matthew chapter 25, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven with ten virgins that went out to meet the bridegroom. We are told that five of the virgins were wise and five were foolish. Those that were wise had oil in their vessels, but the foolish had no oil. When the cry went out, "Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him"; the foolish virgins discovered they had no oil and their lamps had gone out. It was then too late to get oil and prepare their lamps. It was too late!!! Could it be true that some of us as Christians are foolish virgins? Have we permitted time to go by and we have not earnestly sought God in prayer and obedience for the oil of the Spirit: Are we ready for redemption? Lift up your heads for your redemption draweth nigh!!!

MID-WEST YOUTH CAMP

The Mid-West Youth Camp convened July 15-22 at Laverne, Oklahoma with Bro. Olen Bachelor, Bro. John Whipple and Bro. Donald Dibbens, as the Committee.

There were 165 enrolled and their ages ranged from 10-22. These students represented 29 churches and 7 states. In addition to the 165 students enrolled, there were 20 counselors, 12 teachers, 13 cooks and helpers and 12 Bible School students making a total of 222 actively participating in the Youth Camp.

The Youth Camp was a blessing and an encouragement to everyone that attended. The first night of Camp we saw three young boys give their hearts to the Lord. It was wonderful how the Lord met with us. There were approximately 25 saved, 18 sanctified and 13 filled with the Holy Spirit and some healings.

Every hour was filled for the participating youths from reveille at 6:45 every morning to bed check at 10 every night and the camp experience was further heightened by the blowing of reveille and taps by bugler Harrol Waterbury.

Rallies were held every morning at a special place on the grounds where impromptu services are held that encouraged the students to enter more completely into religious experience.

Other hours were especially set aside for formal class work, for handicraft training and recreation and rest periods. An old school bell was sounded to call the youths to every activity.

The housing condition was crowded but the students didn't mind. There were dormitory tents of various sizes for boys

BAXTER SPRINGS CAMP MEETING

A Camp Meeting of regional proportions was held at Baxter Springs, Kansas, in the Shady City Park next to Spring River, from July the first thru the tenth.

Good crowds were in attendance especially at the night services. The Bible Lessons at the 10:30 A. M. service were outstanding in their clearly understandable manner and inspired of the Holy Spirit. The preaching in both the afternoon and night services were especially good. Many comments were heard to the effect that it was the best that had been heard at a Camp Meeting in years. Much victory was gained around the altars but no exact count was kept.

in one section of the camp ground and similar ones for the girls in another area. The youths were divided into tribes named with Bible names, and each tribe had a counselor who lived with them throughout the encampment.

The students lined up much in the GI manner at chow time filling through the cook tent to be served and then to the dining tent to be seated.

In the classes and every service we felt the presence of the Lord. All the students, counselors, teachers, cooks and helpers, and committee got along wonderfully together. We had outstanding discipline from the students throughout their stay at Youth Camp.

There was Evangelistic Service each evening at 7:45 and the young ministers were in charge of these services.

In preparation of His coming, the spirit of God is moving on His people today calling them to the heights of consecration of all life, of all time, of all resources.

We are purchased, redeemed cleansed from sin, made nigh to God, given peace with God, justified, sanctified, have boldness to enter the holiest, brought from the dead and made overcomers by the blood of Jesus.

Good Influence - Bad Influence

By Leota Jacobs

Be not overcome of evil,
But overcome evil with good.
Romans 12:21.

People of this world are inclined not to take a stand and live their lives like they feel they should. So many do things because some others do it. Influence is a great thing. It can be good or bad. But it must be one of the two. Ephesians 5:22, says, "Awake thou that sleepest . . . Christ will give you light." It is a fact, we are all a product of teaching, good or bad. So many are just plain asleep to good. Evil delights in such. Our own personality has much to do with what we are. We must be self-willed but consecrated to God.

If only we could be influenced by the life of Christ, as we are by people with whom we work, talk and live, how wonderful it would be.

We are too much to fall in line with the other person before we give thought of what has been said and what actions are being taken. I am reminded of the driving slogan, "Give and Take." In other words give thought and take consideration. This would be a good slogan to live by, if we want people to enjoy our presence and desire to be our friends, "Give and Take."

Always be a helper for good influence, although it isn't easy. It takes will power, prayer and study of the Bible. When you hear sayings, "I heard", "They said", "Did you hear", watch out, don't tolerate them or you will be helping bad influence. If you can't talk straight from the chin, without these handles, don't talk. You may do great harm and push someone down. That would be bad influence. Should we work as hard for good as for evil, what a changed world we would live in. Yes, we can work for evil without an effort. It comes natural. It takes a real person with will power, determination, wisdom from God, with much prayer to be a good helper for good influence. Stop and think how these two characters work to win a person.

A babe is born into every type of home, christian, high moral, poor, rich, sinful, and drunkard. The greatest of these would be the Christian home. Evil will always present itself, but we do not have to accept it. The privilege is to every person to overcome evil with good by prayer and the power of God, with knowledge of the scriptures.

LET'S GIVE

No one's surrounded by a fence,
That cuts him off from others;
Each man has his own influence
As brothers have on brothers.

Yes, every man is influenced
For good, or ill, by others,
And every man is recompensed
By that he gave his brothers.

—Albert Leonard Murray.

David when reproving Doeg said, "Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue." Psalms 52: 3, 4.

People do love evil better than good, it is an easy way. Evil always has camouflage to make it look good, wonderful and pleasant. The devil does not like good. Be sure he will try you to the limit. Just because we have been a christian all our life or so many years, or a minister, gospel worker, or did some specialized christian work does not mean we are exempt from having evil challenge us. Paul, one of the most faithful apostles, said, "... When I would do good, evil is present with me." Romans 7:21. Are we therefore unstable in our ways, unlearned, unconsecrated and not prayerful? How do we expect to be able to overcome evil with good? It takes spirituality in one's life to win this victory over evil and wrong. We must be alive, alert, doing the works of Christ, bearing fruit for the Master. Otherwise we are hovering bad influence upon people with whom we live. So many people demand rigid standards of living for others, but they themselves do not attain to it. They have failed to see the beam in their eye. They can only see the mote in the eyes of others.

"Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; In honour preferring one another; not slothful in business, fervent in spirit; Serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer; distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you; bless and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one to another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If it be possible as much as lieth in you, live peaceable with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written vengeance is mine I will repay saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil,

ITEMS OF INTEREST

MODERN NOAH'S ARK TO LIBERIA

A modern "Noah's Ark" intended to bring Christianity and modern farming methods to the Liberian jungle was dedicated near Vicksburg, Mississippi, by Evangelist Billy Graham and left immediately for Africa. Industrious R. G. LeTourneau, who planned the project, said that he believes "hungry natives" will listen to the Christian message of the ark's company "if we can show them a field of grain with a combine harvesting more in a day than they can eat in a year."

LeTourneau's son-in-law and daughter, Gustav and Louise Dick, are in charge of the expedition. They will supervise the development of 500,000 acres Mr. LeTourneau has leased from the Liberian government for 30 years with option to renew for another 50 years if the venture succeeds. When the ark, a converted Navy LSM (landing craft) with a cruising speed of 10 knots, docks near Baffu Bay on the Guinea Coast Mr. LeTourneau will leave the United States in his twin-engine bomber to join the expedition on African soil.

OIL DRILLING IN ISRAEL

Oil drilling in Israel will start some time this year, it was disclosed in a newspaper dispatch from Paris. Frank Kaftel, president of the New Continental Oil Company, told a Reuters correspondent that there may be "More oil in Israel than in Iraq." The first borings will be in the vicinity of Haifa. The prophecy concerning one of the tribes of Israel, that Asher should "dig his foot in oil" (Deut. 33:24), takes on new meaning.

TESTIMONY

God performed a miracle in my life recently and I want to praise Him for it. The Dentist told me six months ago that I didn't have a good tooth in my head. I had my upper teeth extracted and decided to trust God entirely. Brother Joe Smith and a few believers anointed me with oil and prayed the prayer of faith and God healed my lower teeth. The Dentist now says my teeth are in a good condition. Praise God! God still honors faith.

but overcome evil with good." Romans 12: 9,21.

Amos 5:14 tells us to, "Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the Lord the God of host shall be with you as ye hath spoken."

Remember the Lord knows our every act of doing. He knows the intents of the heart, if fact He looks upon the heart. Solomon tells us in Proverbs 15:3, "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

People should give more thought and consideration to what is going on around them, also the happenings of their own life. Shun the very appearance of evil. Overshadow evil with good. What a man thinks and approves is not always right. Read your Bible and stay prayerful and let God's approval rest upon you. It will make you a person with good influence. That good influence will cause people to tell good from evil. It will have its effect upon humanity. "Beloved follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God." Third John II.

What is our daily influence upon people? It is good or bad? Make a war against satan and his evil forces that would have you do evil. By the power of God be victorious in your daily living.

Prohibition does not always prohibit, neither does civilization always civilize, not education educate, nor Christianity Christianize; but they are God's levers by which we can live—

The Cost of a Boy

Paul S. Rahneff

Minneapolis Juvenile Court Chaplain.

Listen to this voice from the dark past: "Now, gentlemen, how much am I offered for this bright, likely boy, only seventeen years old and only half black, comes of good stock, is healthy, has been well raised, got fifty years of work in him and lots of real value, how much am I offered?" Don't be scared, or shudder, at the above utterances, for this is just a dark page of our past history. The slave auction has disappeared. The auction block, thank God, is but a memory. Yet, over the space of barely six decades you may catch once more the echo of these words from the Southern market place — "SOLD!"

I do not ask you to consider the moral side of such a sale, for all that they considered in those days was the commercial features. What did a man buy? — human potentiality, productive power in human form, upon the lowest plane of consideration. WHAT IS YOUR BOY WORTH TODAY — precisely what the slave boy was worth — A CASH INVESTMENT IN MANHOOD?

No, we don't grow boys in any cheap fashion. Any child in the average home is costly extravagance compared with the old-time slave boy. And yet, after rearing some of them, there is a great possibility that they will not sell as high as the slave boy was sold, if this were permitted.

Can we praise the cold business calculating and wisdom of the slave-holder and his course and not criticize and condemn the poor business policy and folly of the modern father who rears a boy with a far greater the cost than the slave cost and then deliberately sustains a policy for his life that will eventually ruin and completely wipe out his investment?

REMEMBER, fathers, alcohol is one of the strongest forces that is bidding day and night for that boy of yours. Whether his life will be fruitful and a blessing to society will depend a great deal on the manner in which you lead, train and educate that child.

YOU are the pattern that he follows. Every man's life is a ledger with debit and credit accounts. No one can live who fails to pay dividends. It would be a saving to the nation if there was a way whereby we could get rid of all those who had desecrated their lives with liquor and thus have marred and blighted the lives of those that are under their protection. Of course, this cannot be done. The alcoholic is a tremendous financial burden to society. Most of them have never returned to society. Most of them never returned in dividends one dollar of their first cost. It is a solemn thing to assist in sending a man through, and out of life, in debt forever to his fellowmen. It is a far more solemn thing to assist in sending him thus throughout life forever helplessly a debtor to his God.

TWO PRAYERS

Last night my little boy confessed to me

Some childish wrong; and kneeling at my knee,

He prayed with tears, "Dear God, make me a man.

Like Daddy; wise and strong; I'm sure You can."

Then, while he slept, I knelt beside his bed,

Confessed my sins, and prayed, with low bowed head,

"O God, make me a child, like my child here —

Pure, guiltless, trusting Thee with faith sincere."

Brother Reuben Davis and two of the younger children at the Children's Home.

Dear Friends:

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

A number of our friends have expressed a desire that we write concerning the progress in the Children's Home.

The Lord's smile of approval has blessed the work since opening our home, four and one-half years ago, to unfortunate children. During that time we have cared for forty-nine boys and girls, orphans, half orphans and from broken homes. Most of the children have accepted Jesus as their personal Saviour. Two have received the Baptism with the Holy Spirit. Too numerous are the miracles of healing to mention all of them. We are indeed grateful to God for the way He has come to our rescue and healed tonsillitis, appendicitis, broken bones, low blood pressure and fevers. The same God who said "I am the Lord that healeth thee," is our God today.

Recently five new children have come to us. No matter how large the present family, they always welcome new comers with open arms and warm hearts. It is remarkable the love and concern demonstrated for each other. It is as though we were all members of one big family.

God has so graciously supplied our needs up to this present time. At present we are in need of another consecrated christian house mother. Will you please pray about this matter.

We wish to take this means of thanking the individuals and church groups who have sent to us necessities, quilts, towels, blankets, sheets, clothing, toys, and offerings. Without your help we don't know what we

The Lord is blessing the little country community church where the friends and neighbors meet together to worship. Several have been blessed, saved and miraculously healed in answer to prayer.

An invitation is heartily extended to you to visit the Christian Home for Children and attend services at the Community Church.

LIFT UP YOUR HEADS

The masses are asleep to the facts of the future. However, not everyone is asleep, because some of God's saints are looking for the coming of Christ. While the world is mocking, scoffing and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming?", a few unnoticed saints of God are preparing their hearts for Redemption and the return of Jesus Christ. Peter wrote in 2 Pet. 3:3-4, "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming: for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

It is the duty of ministers and Christian believers to warn the people. Among the thousands of humanity, there must be at least a few that are honest of heart. Surely, if they knew the way, they would walk in it. There are many believers who have believed unto salvation, but have never sought God and prepared their hearts for the filling of the oil of the Spirit. Will their lamps go out? It is indeed a challenge for us to tell the glorious news of the Gospel. Jesus is coming soon!! Redemption draweth nigh!!

There are three points that we can observe faithfully so we will be ready for Redemption.

FIRST: Jesus said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." If we sincerely put God first in everything, he will in turn supply all our needs. SECOND: Jesus prayed, "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." (John 17:15-17). Thorough sanctification will help us meet the problems and issues of these troublesome, dangerous, perilous times. Sanctification will make us overcome over temptation. Sanctification will guard us against selfishness, covetousness, and emulations. Sanctification will enable us to do the Will of God. THIRD: Jesus said, "And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high." "If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you." "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will shew you things to come." (Luke 24:49; John 14:15-17; and John 16:13).

Meeting these three requirements will make us ready to meet the Lord when he comes. Being cleaned and sanctified, we will work earnestly and zealously until he calls for us. Being filled with the Spirit, we will hear His call to duty. We will shun the evil. We will be ready for redemption, "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh."

BRITISH PREACHERS GET RAISE

The low incomes of British clergymen, which have been a matter of deep concern to the Anglican Church Commissioners for England, were boosted about 20 per cent. Last year Britain's 12,000 Anglican clergymen had an average income of less than $25.00 a week after payment of necessary operating expenses.

know that Jesus is the answer. The old song states that, "I'll hold not to the rock, but the rock holds me." I am not trying to discourage any effort for the Gospel, but may each attempt be bigger and better, but in case that God does not so will for us the above success, may we know that all things work out for the good of them that love God, and keep our faith in Christ. Christ ministered to the multitudes, and He blessed the few as well. Numbers does not always denote success. What we are, what we have in Christ, will be what we are rewarded for. I will not have to answer for another, I cannot gain another's reward, each one must give an account and receive. Let us put Christ first, and with an eye single to His cause, and glory look steadfast on Jesus. He is the author of our salvation. Heb. 2:10.

As we have mentioned briefly the care of the Father, and the protection of the Son, may we also know that the Holy Spirit is our comforter. John 14-16. He was promised by Christ and sent from the Father. John 15:26-27. He is to testify of Christ. In John 16:13 He is called the Spirit of truth. Now we must go all the way, we must follow the conviction for sins that leads to repentance, that brings salvation, and next gives our lives to Christ so that we are sanctified and tarry before the Throne until we have received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. We were thus commanded by Jesus. Luke 24:49. A spirit filled life is ordered and pleasing to the Lord. To be led by His Spirit denotes deep spiritual learning and close communion to the Most High. Many sorrows have come in and many times much worldliness because the gift of God to us has not been kept with a holy vow and a sealed in testimony. Let us not be overcome with evil, but rather overcome evil with good. We overcome by the power of the Blood of Jesus. We are able to do His bidding. I know that there are special callings and works, but when we see a need let us rise to meet it and let the Lord count on us, for our labor in Him is not in vain. Do you have a song, sing it? Do you have a testimony, give it. Do you have good thoughts, express them, write them. If you do not have these things ask for them. Is there a sick one to minister to or a poor one to give to, do it, let God count on you. Study His Word and you will know from His Book of Rules how to work and how to abound. O the joy of sins forgiven, O the glory of holiness walking, and spirit filled living, but real blessings come from doing, giving, working, stepping in the light as He is in the light.

Now we have all things. The Father to supply every need and be our portion and lot. We have the Son who gave His very life for us, has redeemed us and washed us in His own Blood. We have the Holy Ghost to be with us and in us. We lack nothing. So let us abound unto every good work to do His will. God is for us and a sure reward awaits the faithful, just and justified.

PENTECOSTALS SEEK U. N. SUPPORT

An appeal to the United Nations for help in securing religious freedom for Pentecostals in Italy was voted by the third World Conference of Pentecostal Churches meeting in London in July. Delegates from many nations approved the plea and authorized the setting up of a Pentecostal Commission on Religious Liberty. A report to the conference said that acts of physical violence against Pentecostals in Italy had been mounting steadily in the past four months.

Iran, The Hot Spot

Politically speaking, world attention is divided today between two hot spots," Korea and Iran. Prophetically speaking, the hottest of the two is Iran. For a long time, we have taken the position that the undeclared war in Korea is only a side issue, a test of strength, a mere diversion from the real purposes of the Russian Bear. Though this is a real war in every sense and though casualties have been heavy, it is generally admitted that victory would be no great gain for either side. In Iran, however, much is at stake. With a large proportion of the world's oil being refined here, Russia, Iran, Britain, and America all have a vital interest in the area. Trouble is brewing, for these interests overlap and are at variance with one another. Iranian patriots are against all foreigners. Communists are active, staging riots and demonstrations. Russian armies are on the Iranian borders. British paratroopers and ships are ready for duty. An American diplomat is in conference with the Shah. In the ancient land of Persia may be planted and cultivated the seeds of World War III and the Battle of Armageddon. Because of its proximity to the new nation of Israel and its position in the Near East, we view with prophetic interest the important activities now taking place in Iran. The first pages of human history were written in the Middle East, and there the nations will conclude their history.

The Bible foretold our day and beyond. It told of the time when "the end" will be written on the history book of man's rule. The end will come when all nations of each gather themselves in the Near East around the city of Jerusalem, to battle one another for the spoil to be found there. The nations in-involved will be divided into two groups, one being the great power of the north, Russia and her allies, and the other group composed of nations seeking to stop the northern confederacy from gaining control. Among the nations of the northern confederacy, Russia, Prussia, Turkey, the Balkans, listed in Ezekiel 38, are also listed "Pessia, Ethiopia and Lybia with them; all of them with shield and helmet" (v. 5). On the basis of this verse, it is our belief that eventually the British and ourselves will lose our hold in Iran and Iran (Persia) will join the camp of Russia, becoming another swallowed satellite of the greedy Communist Russia. We can foresee also the fall of Turkey, Ethiopia, and Libya (or Egypt as some believe) and eventually even part of Israel into Russian hands.

The oil of Iran is calling the world's attention near to the Middle East, where the last war of history is to be fought. The world is dividing itself; the battle lines are forming; and some day those in Opposition to the northern hosts will say, "You have gone far enough (possibly after the Middle East and North Africa are gobbled up); go one step farther and we fight." A move on Palestine will then draw all nations into battle. There may be a season or two of deceptive peace; there may be minor wars in the meantime; but in the end, we will find Russia and her allies, including most of the Near, Middle, and Far East, and North Africa, drawn up to battle the rest of the world. The moves in Indonesia, Tibet, India, Iran and China are the beginning of the end.

So, what should we do? World history is in its last chapter. Civilization is grounded now and may soon break upon the rocks of atomic war. Should we not eat, drink and be merry?

Should we join the Communist party so we will be on the side of the coming majority? Should we hope against hope that the Bible has made a mistake and hide our heads in the sands of belief that it may work out all right. None of these is the way out! The Word of God tells what is coming, and it also tells the way of escape. It is much better than science, which can create an atomic bomb, but cannot guarantee escape from destructiveness.

There are awful days coming soon on our world. The rumblings in Iran are only the first notes of the warning trumpet. The wise, who have ears to hear are wondering about a way out. Where is the door to safety? "How shall we escape? Must we, knowing these terrors are stored up for this world, endure these things that are to come to pass? No, praise God, there is a way of escape, through the salvation offered through Jesus Christ.

Healed

God has wonderfully healed me of T. B. Two years ago I discovered my condition. After X-rays were made I was advised to be under the Doctor's care at once. October of 1951 I attended the Scott's tent revival in Carthage, Missouri. I entered the healing line and when Sis. Scott prayed for me I felt the healing touch. My healing holds good today. I give this testimony to tell others how wonderfully God heals.

I enrolled in the Apostolic Faith Bible School and while there I felt the call from God to enter the ministry. I praise God for what He has done for me.

"UNEASINESS"

Dr. W. O. Lewis, associate secretary of the Baptist World Alliance reports that at present there is more "uneasiness" in the Catholic Church in France than there has been for some time. According to recent statistics, about 2,000 Roman Catholic priests have left the Church in France since 1945. The movement still continues. Those leaving the church have an organization called The Bereans which carries on an energetic propaganda to encourage Catholics to break with the Church and turn to a personal faith in Christ. "May God grant that this may result in real conversion to a living faith in the living Saviour, Jesus Christ!"

A POISIN TREE

There is a singular tree which bears the appropriate name of the "Judas tree." The blossoms appear before the leaves, and they are of brilliant crimson. The flaming beauty of the flower attracts innumerable insects, and the wandering bee is drawn to it to gather honey. But every bee that alights upon the blossoms imbibes a fatal opiate, and drops dead from among the crimson flowers to the earth. Beneath this enticing tree the ground is strewn with the victims of its fatal fascinations. That alluring tree, which decoys only to destroy, is a vivid emblem of the deceitfulness of sin. There is only one remedy for the poison of sin's sorcery, and that is the leaves of the "tree of life," which grows on Calvary.

Christians, if they want their money blest, must honor the Lord with the first fruits of all their increase.

It's all right to use a hammer, if you're building something.

The Gospel Story

We have had the Gospel all through the ages
As proclaimed by Prophets and Sages
We have it in God's Word written
That we must follow the One who was smitten.

We have had the sweet story told
Of how Jesus came in the days of old
How He took upon Himself the form of Man
And talked and walked in the old land:

It is a precious story too
How He gave up glory for me and you
That the Scripture should be true
That He was born of a Virgin too.

So today He calls as He did then
For us to obey and not live in sin
Have you ever thought how many struggle on
Not heeding the call of God's own Son?

God gave the Pearl of Great Price, His Son,
That the Church might be one
That by His blood we shall be white
And all be perfect in God's sight.

So let us each one count the cost
As did Jesus when He went to the cross
Then let us in the Light of God walk
Be careful of our ways and how we talk.
Each in the church have burdens to bear
But Jesus knows all and He does care
So let us pray for one another the world around
Until we trade the cross for a crown.

Let us be humble as God's own son
When he said "Not my will, but thine be done"
Let us press on from early morn till night
For a coveted goal is almost in sight.

—Anabel Simmons

UNKNOWN DESERT TRIBES

In the Sahara desert exist Jewish tribes, of whom nothing was known until this day, Aubrey Shuraky, the assistant Secretary at The Alliance Israelite Universelle, declared. He explained that during a trip of 8,000 miles in Africa, he came upon nomad Jewish tribes, of whom the Jewish Historians have no record to date. One of those tribes numbers about 3,000 souls and lives in an oasis in the Sahara desert, under conditions of a thousand years ago.

He who throws mud at his neighbor soils his own hands.

The greatest ability is dependability.

For His sake, some are called to die a martyr's death. Some to live a martyr's life. Ignatius said, "I would rather be a martyr than a monarch." Another martyr, overwhelmed with the glories of Christian martyrdom, exclaimed, "So much wages for so little work!" If God calls us to stand in a martyr's shoes, He gives a martyr's grace.

The population under Communistic control has reached the fabulous total of 769 million.

Do You Catch a Vision?

"Have you caught the vision God would have you see?
Millions now are dying far across the sea;
Who will bring redemption to the shackled slave?
Will you go and tell them Jesus Christ can save?"

"Have you caught the vision of a world that's lost?
Have you counted, brother, what redemption costs?
This old world is drifting down to endless night—
Will you go and tell them Jesus is the light?"

"Have you caught the vision what a soul is worth?
It is far more precious than the things of earth;
Seek to know, my brother, what you need the most—
Will you let Him fill you with the Holy Ghost?"

"We must keep the vision, counting not the cost,
Have a Holy passion for a world that's lost;
Seek His re-anointing, lying at His feet—
Bringing souls to Jesus, made in Him complete.
