II. Conducted a roll call. The following persons were present: Bill Charles, Cindy Christiansen, Judy Keeling, John McGraw, Phil Garlow and Jim Reuschlein

III. Approval of minutes from last meeting

Approved – available in Newsletter. 1st Cindy 2nd Judy.

IV. Financial Report for prior month – Jim Reuschlein

Financial report – 4 months ending April 30, 2018. 1st Judy, 2nd Cindy, Approved. Judy pointed out that ½ of carrying charges is land lease expense. Replacement Reserves Delinquents

V. Management Report – Jim Reuschlein, Clearview Property Management Services

One Unit listed for sale $109,000 Ex. 2A. Foreclosure unit is being prepped for listing.

Spring inspections complete and a Thank you to the two volunteers.

Third year of geese program. Three active nests for 16 eggs so far this year. Similar to prior years.

JR will approach local apartment community that is also dealing with issue. Hopes to coordinate efforts.

#4 listing of all contracts in place. Extra billing for April - $3900

VI. Open issues Bill questioned Paul about the 10 Hot Water tanks that were replaced in April. Paul stated we hit a high volume and it goes in spurts.

Bill also thanks the two volunteers for working with the board on the Spring walkthrough and hopes they will return next year.

Bill also discussed placement of trash bags prior to Monday morning. The bags being placed out on Sunday night and torn up by morning. Cans Sunday after 5pm, bags Monday morning only. Violations are being tracked and letters/fines will be issued.

VII. New business/discussions of membership

Judy – Newsletter, member wanted to know if we pay for their newsletter. John explained that snowbirds pay to have them mailed.

Judy volunteered to join the quarterly Phase 1-4 meetings. Courtyard walk – 3rd Saturday in June. Call Judy to participate.

May 21st trip to UM Gardens, lunch and general store. 9:30am on that Monday.

Complaint about a courtyard bus-stop had garbage cans and stated she has done that for 14 years. Board said garbage cans need to be inside courtyard.

Coffee participate asked about the Lady Bird Deed clause when units are left without a will or persons left behind. Wonders if we should have an attorney come to help explain. Judy will research more.

Guest (Gary) from Phase 1-4 about front entrance. The covert might be replaced by county, so we need to wait on any project involving the asphalt. Gary will keep us updated.

Kay from Phase 3, from garden at entrance. Each year the phases pay $234.00 and concerned that Phase V has not paid and during call to Clearview it was stated the board must approve. Front Entrance Garden 2018

1st Judy, 2nd Cindy – all in favor – approved Stacy to cut check.

Member questioned the budget number for grounds and flowers. Explained that money is for weeding and clean-up of areas. Outside cleanup is still in process.

Mr. Bell (had photo example) looking at the exterior of vented end unit for exhaust fan.

1st Phil, 2nd Cindy for only 1 and 6, the end units. All in favor – approved Michigan events booklet that Mr. Bell would like to share. Available in the clubhouse.

Mr. Bell, would it be possible to have a retractable awning. Bill: Traditionally boards turn that down due to the mounting and screwing into siding.

Member: New siding? If you put new gutters up what color? Brown or beige. Board request using the lighter color and phase out the dark brown.

Bill: The project is in the works and board is revision the rules/regs to adjust for some changes that will be done due to this project.

Member asked about replacing windows, what color? Phil: The lighter color is being looked at.

Jim is getting the siding schedule from contractor soon and that will assist in people coordinating the work with window and gutter replacements by member. Is there any prep for snowbirds? They should try and keep exterior walls clear before they leave if their building will be worked on while they are gone.

Member – what about clubhouse cleanup of brush and removal of tree? Light Poles? Jim has Jamie coming out. Bill: Lights and timers are being rewired and conduit done properly. This would be along the pond area to lighten the area. Jim to have Jamie remove the overgrown. Connie: Need a new advertising person to fill the position. If anyone has interest, please have them talk to Connie. Would be out reaching to area businesses to support the newsletter and clubhouse.

Jackie: Can we get a sample of siding in the clubhouse and can we find out if siding people do gutters and if so a quote for members. Green Oak Gutter is another option.

VIII. Adjournment Bill adjourned the meeting at 1:55 pm.

Minutes submitted by: Stacy M. Klabak/Jim Reuschlein

Minutes approved by:

Colonial Acres
Phase V Clubhouse Committee Meeting
May 8, 2018

Meeting came to order at 9:35.

Gary gave report on Garage sale.

It was very successful, was very well advertised and made money for our Clubhouse.

People were very pleased with the variety, generously donated by our residents.

We were also able to make a good donation to the Salvation Army store as well.

Gloria submitted treasurers report.

There was income from the garage sale and ads. Only outgoing was from ad materials for garage sale and our newsletter, and clubhouse cleaning

Report was accepted as submitted.

Casino Trip was not as well attended as had been hoped for due to other engagements people had committed to.

The trip was to Firekeepers, further discussion will be needed concerning the next trip.

Bill will sit in and advise our coordinators, as he's very experienced with these trips as well.

Maintenance report and discussion on phone directory will be later as John McGraw was excused from this months meeting.

Deanne gave report on coffee hour, there we're 82 people in attendance for coffee hour last month, including our police chief and his wife, and our new town developer.

Council persons are also frequently in attendance.

Everyone is welcome, for coffee and donuts for a $1.00 donation on Monday mornings at 8:00 a.m.

So come on down and meet the neighbors!!

Corn Roast, a very popular event will be held August 11th, this year.

We will have more info as the date draws near, we will need volunteers for this event.

Advertising Sales Manager: We need someone to fill this position due to the sudden loss of our wonderfully capable Jack Saunders.

We won't do full page ads anymore as the smaller ones are more profitable.

Elections for clubhouse committee seats are open this year for Clubhouse Co-Chair, Treasurer, and Ad Director, please get your nominations in now and early !!

Judy Keeling is organizing another Gardenwalk this spring.

June 23 at 10:30.

Ellen Worthy generously donated $100.00 for the purchase of flowers for this event.

Ellen works tirelessly and generously in our community, thank you Ellen!!

Anyone interested in playing poker men and women, come to clubhouse on Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. We have a couple gentleman looking for a game if others are interested, there's already some ladies that play Monday nights.

Kathy is also interested in trying to start up a pinochle game for Wednesday's afternoon or evenings, if interested contact a member on Clubhouse Committee and we'll pass the info along!

Meeting adjourned at 10:38

Letter from the Clubhouse Chair

I know this has been discussed previously, but the message bears repeating. We would like more resident participation on the Clubhouse Committee. This is your chance to not only be aware of what is going on, but also to have input in discussions and decision making. Don't just grumble to your friends and neighbors, be a part of the change you would like to see. Just because you may not be here for the entire year doesn't mean you can't contribute when you are here. If you can't come to every single meeting that's OK. Be a resident who supports this valuable asset to our community. You can make a difference. Sincerely, Connie Williams

COLONIAL ACRES PHASE V SECOND ANNUAL GARDEN WALK SATURDAY, JUNE 23RD, 10:30AM

This was a very popular event last year and requested to be repeated again this year. It is a perfect chance to meet some neighbors, enjoy some of our beautiful courtyards, get some great ideas for enhancing your own courtyard and have a fun time doing it. We have some very enthusiastic gardeners willing to share their ideas with us. This is such a fun time to sip some lemonade and meet our neighbors, consider sharing your ideas by including your courtyard on the tour.

If you are interested in sharing your courtyard and include it in this walking tour contact Judy Keeling at 734 972-0066. Please let her know as soon as possible so she can print the maps in time for the event.

The tour will begin at Judy Keelings, 62180 Arlington Circle #5 at 10:30am Saturday, June 23rd, reservations not required, just show up.

Light refreshments will be served during the tour. A free will donation will be collected at the beginning of the tour to help with the purchase of flowers in our community shared spaces.

This is a fun time to see a variety of decorating options for our courtyards.

YOU DO NOT WANT TO MISS THIS EVENT!

Notice from Your Board of Directors

Recently there was an excellent article in the newsletter about what it means to live in a Cooperative complex. Today we would like to discuss an issue of neighbor disputes.

Members of the co-op do not have the right to enforce the Rules and Regulations or to take any action on their neighbor's property area.

This includes the member's courtyard and their back deck area or sunroom. If a member feels that another member is in violation of the rules they should take their complaint to the Board of Directors. The best way to accomplish this is a written letter with full details of your issue. Or if that is not an option you can call any member of the Board who will take the information and bring it to the entire Board. The Board will then look into the issue and make a determination. If the Board feels there is a violation the member in question will be given a warning letter. The decision of the Board is final.

As examples a member feels that another member has inappropriate or ugly decorations in their courtyard. If that member then enters the offending courtyard, and removes those items, that is an issue that could result in the Board taking action against the member who entered another members courtyard. Or if a member feels that another member has old furniture or other issues with another members deck space or issues with another members sunroom that member cannot on their own take any action against the potential offending member,

These examples often lead to critical neighbor disputes that can result in law enforcement being called.

From time to time these issues get to the point where member disputes become critical. This can lead to the Board taking legal action against one or both members and could lead to eviction. We as a Board wish to avoid these issues getting to this point.

So if you have an issue please let the Board know so we can take the action needed to resolve it.

Thank you,
Board of Directors

Trash Collection Reminders

Based upon discussion at the Board meeting on May 9th, it has become necessary to remind residents of the rules concerning our trash collection on Mondays.

There have been numerous instances of animals getting into plastic bags that have been left out overnight. This results in garbage being scattered about. This is unsightly as well as unsanitary, and will risk creating a rodent problem. Our trash collectors are not responsible for cleaning up trash from bags torn open by animals or garbage not in appropriate containers.

THEREFORE:

Trash in an appropriate Garbage Receptacle can be put out no earlier than 5 pm on Sunday.

IF PLASTIC BAGS ARE USED, THEY ARE NOT TO BE PUT OUT UNTIL MONDAY MORNING.

Collection usually starts around 8:00am, have your trash out prior to this.

After collection, trash and recycle bins must be picked up from the curb by Monday evening.

All of this is to preserve the appearance and overall esthetic of our community. Please be a considerate neighbor and resident of our community. Thank you.

Looking for plants? Go Native!

Denise Semion

Last August, I took the first courtyard tour at Colonial Acres Phase V, which gave me the chance to see how friends and neighbors use colorful plants, like clematis, to add a stunning pop of color to their patios.

I was inspired to spruce up our courtyard, and have been reading up on the importance of adding native plants to our gardens. I found out why at the National Audubon Society and the National Wildlife Federation's websites: Native plants are those that occur naturally in the region in which they evolved, and are hardy because they have adapted to the local conditions. They're naturally low maintenance and they give birds the food and shelter they need. Native plants (which includes trees, shrubs, vines, annuals/perennials, grasses and evergreens) are the ecological basis upon which life depends, including birds and people. Without them and the insects that co-evolved with them, local birds cannot survive. Once established, native plants do not need pesticides, fertilizers, or watering. Not only is this good for the environment, it saves time and money. Landscaping with native wildflowers and grasses helps return the area to a healthy ecosystem. They help ease the impact of climate change. And they support a host of other beneficial wildlife: pollinators critical to the whole web of life.

Since I like minimal-care plants in my courtyard, these sound perfect for me!

The National Audubon Society's website, www.audubon.org, hosts a native plant database, where you just enter your zip code to research which native plants will attract various birds. I found a variety of native trees, shrubs and flowers listed, along with the birds they will attract. For example, black-eyed Susan and orange coneflowers attract butterflies, wrens, chickadees, titmice, waxwings and wood warblers, to name a few. Other plants on the list include New England aster, wild blue phlox and spotted bee balm.

Native plants used to be hard to find, but their popularity seems to be growing. When shopping, please note that some plants, like clematis, could be native or non-native, and you need to ask your grower to find out. Locally, Willow Greenhouse, at 7839 Curtis Road, Northville (south of 6 Mile Road) has a section in their greenhouse devoted to native plants, including black-eyed Susan, milkweed, prickly pear and clematis. I'm sure other local nurseries also carry native plants; you just need to ask.

Happy gardening!

MAKING REAL ESTATE REAL EASY

Try this watermelon pizza for a yummy summer treat!

Ingredients:

- 1 watermelon
- 1 cup coconut yogurt
- ½ cup strawberries sliced
- ½ cup raspberries
- ½ cup cherries
- ½ cup blueberries
- ½ cup pomegranate seeds

Using a sharp knife, cut off a slice of watermelon right down the middle, about 2-3 inches thick.

Using a spatula, spread on even layer of your yogurt around the watermelon leaving a bit of empty space at the top (where your "pizza crust" is).

Layer your fresh fruit on top as you please. You can add as little or as many toppings as you want!

Drizzle with honey or maple syrup for a little extra sweetness is desired.
