PUBLIC COMMENT

Members of the DeTour Township Parks and Recreation committee joined the meeting to discuss a project they are planning within DeTour Township. The project is extensive and consists of creating a veteran's memorial, pickle ball courts and a public bathroom. The group is requesting input as well as monetary donations to help towards matching any grant funds received. The group also requested a letter of support for the project to submit with all grant materials. The project is estimated to cost approximately $260,000. Suzie Baker, Parks and Rec Chair, will share drawings and details for posting on the Raber Township Facebook page.

CORRESPONDENCE

Leslie received the generator refill policy from Autore oil. Paul will follow up with them in regards to monitoring unit that was supposed to be included in the cost of install. Hillary shared a funding request from the UPSET drug task force.
