The Bible and Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy
Read by Roger & Penny Strelow

Golden Text: III John 1:2

(The golden thread running through the lesson)

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

Responsive Reading: Luke 15:11-14 A certain, 17-20, 22 the, 24 (to 1st.); Psalms 34: 22

11 . . . A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a might famine in that land;
and he began to be in want.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

22 . . . the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.
