National Director Bruce Keenon

Came especially this weekend to thank us for our donations to our national crisis of GWTA, he does not want to pass this on to the next director. Has said he will stay till July. Region B and A were the biggest donators, he is on a plane after talking to us to Washington for their state staff tomorrow. Please talk to your chapter director to get the conversation that Bruce had with us.

National has moved out of offices that we had been in for many years.
