On July 21st, 2018 Duane Dillard II was involved in a motorcycle accident that almost took his life. Duane was diagnosed with a Diffuse Axonal Brain Injury leaving him unresponsive and on life support for 17 days. Initially, doctors offered little to no hope of recovery. Despite great odds, Duane began to regain consciousness on day 17.

We are currently fighting an insurance battle to get him into the Shirley Ryan Ability Lab (formerly RIC) in Chicago, IL. We are asking you to help us fight in Duane's battle. There is a benefit planned for September 29, 2018 at Fatmans in Gurnee to help raise funds to support his treatment at Shirley Ryan Ability Lab. We ask you to join us in helping aid the financial burden from his parents and family.
