At the next membership meeting: Kathy Signorino and Brianna Dance from the O.A.C.

Ms. Kathy Signorino will be speaking about resources that the Ohio Arts Council can provide to artists outside of their grant programs. She will touch-base briefly on the OAC's two grant programs but since this is not a visual year then she will direct most of her talk to things that members can take part in right now.

Ms. Brianna Dance, is the organizational coordinator for our region. She will be talking about funding the O.A.C. has available to non-profit organizations.

Kathy Signorino is program coordinator for the Individual Artist Grants and Services and Percent for Art Programs at the Ohio Arts Council. Ms. Signorino has been with the OAC since 1994 and has helped to oversee the Individual Excellence Awards and the Traditional Arts Apprenticeship grant programs, as well as all activities associated with the Ohio Heritage Fellowship program, including organizing the selection panel for the awards. She also manages the Ohio Traditions website, which highlights Ohio folk and traditional artists, OAC field research, OAC Traditional Master and Ohio Heritage Fellowship recipients. She facilitates the Ohio Heritage Day at the Ohio State Fair and the Ohio Heritage Fellowship award ceremonies in close partnership with Cityfolk, the Ohio Department of Natural Resources and the Columbus International Festival. These ceremonies are promoted to targeted constituencies across the state. Ms. Signorino was also involved in the agency's recent folk arts field research and its ongoing documentation of Traditional Arts Apprenticeships and ThinkTV's video profiles of Ohio Heritage Fellows which appear on the Our Ohio program.

July's Featured Artist, Bethany Ickes

First and foremost: I am absolutely thrilled to be in the line-up of featured artist of the month at Z.A.A.P. I am very grateful to everyone at Z.A.A.P. for all your hard work! I am so happy there is a place for artists in this area to show their work and share in the community. Thank you for all that you do!

For the month of July I will be featuring oil paintings, charcoal drawings with oil pastel, mixed media, fine-point pen drawings, and pencil drawings.

Many of my pieces of artwork depict the feminine aspect of women, using a perspective that you many times do not find. In my feminine pieces I try to look deeper into the beauty of what it is to be a woman; but I also try to show the hardships and sometimes "ugliness" that can come as well. .

I will also be showing a series of oil paintings that depict various scenes. Many of my oil paintings are landscape scenes. Where as others take a deeper look into the issues we sometimes face as humans.

I also have a collection of abstract pieces that I will be showing. These are meant to stimulate your mind, and question the hidden meaning behind many of my pieces.

I truly hope that my work will dazzle your senses, and bring thought to aspects in this life we sometimes forget-the beauty of being human, and the complication of life that is so effortlessly beautiful.

From the desk of the director: John Taylor-Lehman

Marylyn Knell is still looking for 4 more artists to create painted furniture to be auctioned at the Y-Bridge Festival. Earlier e-mails from me contain the details and contact information.

Carron Baxter and Joan Quinn were juried in to the 71st Ohio Annual. The exhibition is on display at the Zanesville Museum of Art.

Your director had 4 pieces selected to be exhibited in the amateur division of the Fine Artists section of the Ohio State Fair.

At the next meeting we will schedule another group outing at Mission Oaks Gardens. The weather was really cold and dreary on April 25th.

Job opportunity

Wine and Canvas is looking for qualified art instructors. Looking for ARTISTS willing to travel to McConnellesville, Athens, and Marietta area to instruct classes. We have the best time sipping wine and PAINTING!

If you are a professional artist with teaching experience and or an art teacher, please contact us at GINNY@WINEANDCANVAS.COM . Email your resume, examples of your work and experience and we will arrange to meet for an interview. If there is mutual interest, we will ask that you participate in a Wine and Canvas class and then teach a class observed by the owner. All instructors are hired part-

You are encouraged to go on your own to capture ideas for works of art to be displayed in September. The "Free Range" exhibition will be at the McIntire Library gallery. <http://www.missionoaksgardens.org/>

The Y-Bridge Festival is coming up. Since ZAAP has a booth we are entitled to enter the Best in Show competition. If you are interested in being ZAAP's representative you must be at the July 23rd membership meeting.

ZAAP is in need of a volunteer to coordinate the booth at the Y-Bridge Festival. This would require set up, take down and scheduling. Please contact me if you can help.

Information and application details for the second annual Zanesville Prize can be found at zanesvilleprize.org

John and Carol Sun announce "Dialogue – Artworks by American and Chinese High School Students"

In July 2015, Yan Sun Art Museum hosts the exhibition, "Dialogue – Artworks by American and Chinese High School Students." This exhibition makes a motivating arrangement of artworks created by high school students from the US and China with various media. It provides a very good opportunity to view how different perspectives of students with different cultural backgrounds are reflected in art.

Opening reception: Friday, July 3, 2015, 5:00pm-8:30pm
Drawing workshop: Friday, July 3, 2015, 1:00pm-4:00pm
