

Are you looking for Inspiration?

Welcome to Room for Inspiration! I am so excited to start this weekly addition to my Styled-It web site. I hope you find these tips informative as well as useful in your pursuit of creating and styling!

Whether it's decorating a new room, writing a blog or my favorite, planning a party; trying to find the most unique or a new concept can be very daunting and exhaustive! Unfortunately this can leave you with the "I'm just not creative" feeling. Have you been there? Well here are two tips that can help resolve that!

First, look and listen all around you for simple things! You'll be amazed at how easy finding inspiration is when you stop trying so hard. Recently I was talking with a sister-in-law about a dessert table I was planning, when I mentioned that I wasn't too sure about the theme she responded by saying "oh, I'm sure it will be out of this world"! Within seconds I was flying high (no pun intended) with all kinds of fun and creative ideas for an "Out of This World" Celestial theme; it really can be that easy.

Lastly, don't get caught up in trying to outdo or copy something you've seen at an event, online or in a magazine, etc. Always be true to your own sense of style and you're guaranteed to have a unique outcome, after all how many of you are there?!
