Founded 1952

Bylaws Revised: 1994, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Maine Education Association Retired, a non-profit organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Maine.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

Section 1.

The purpose of this Association shall be to promote the economic, professional and social welfare of the retired educators of Maine, to support measures that help to achieve these aims, to participate in the promotion of community relations and educational activities, and to provide an opportunity for service.

Section 2.

The Maine Education Association Retired and the Maine Education Association are committed to mutual support and assistance. Although affiliated, both organizations retain their independence.

Section 3.

The Maine Education Association Retired and the NEA-Retired are committed to mutual support and assistance. Although affiliated, both organizations retain their independence.

Section 4.

The Maine Education Association Retired and the National Retired Teachers Association of the AARP are committed to mutual support and assistance. Although affiliated, both organizations retain their independence.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Active Members.

Any educator or educational support professional retired from a public or private school or post-secondary institution in Maine, eligible for unified membership in the local and national affiliates of the Maine Education Association as an active educator, is eligible for active membership upon payment of dues to the Maine Education Association Retired, the Maine Education Association and the NEA-Retired.

Section 2: Out of State Retired Membership

An educator retired from a state other than Maine who is a member of NEA-Retired and their state active association may join the Maine Education Association Retired as an active member upon payment of dues to the MEA Retired Treasurer.

Section 3: Associate Membership.

Educators or educational support professionals whose retirement benefits issue from a pension fund other than the Maine State Retirement System or who retired as an employee ineligible for active unified membership or from a school, school district or post-secondary institution which had no employee relationship with the Maine Education Association may join the Maine Education Association Retired upon payment of MEA-Retired dues only. People whose spouses are members but who otherwise are not eligible for active membership may join the MEA-Retired without joining the MEA and the NEA-Retired.

Active educators who are members of the united organizations may join the MEA-Retired.

Associate members do not have the right to vote or hold office.

Section 4: Honorary Membership.

Honorary membership may be granted to a person who has made a noteworthy contribution to education or to this Association. Any member may present a letter of recommendation to the Board of Directors. A two-thirds vote of the members of the Board present is required to ratify the nomination. No more than one honorary membership may be granted in any one year. The Association will pay unified and county dues for honorary members. Non-members will be paid expenses to attend the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE IV

DUES

Section 1.

The Board of Directors shall set the dues for the Association. Dues shall be paid through the Maine Education Association in cash or by deduction from retirement pay.

Section 2.

Spouses and others who need not join as unified members shall pay their dues to the MEA-Retired Treasurer.

Section 3.

Any member who is in arrears in the payment of dues for a period of one year shall be dropped.

Section 4.

The fiscal year shall be from September 1 to August 31, unless changed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V
MEETINGS

Section 1.

The Annual Meeting shall be held during the first week in May, unless the date is changed by a majority of the Board of Directors. Fifty members shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2:

A special meeting of the association membership may be called by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on the first Monday of April, June, and November and on the second Monday of September. The President or a majority of the Board of Directors may call a special meeting of the Board.

Section 4.

The President, for good cause and with the agreement of the Executive Committee, may cancel a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.

The Executive Committee shall meet at least four times a year at the call of the President.

ARTICLE VI
OFFICERS

Section 1.

The officers shall be an elected President, a President-elect, a Secretary, an Information Coordinator, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, and the immediate Past President.

Section 2.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association and shall have general supervision over the Association. The President shall be chairperson and preside at all general meetings and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The President may invite individuals and representatives of other organizations having an interest in matters concerning retired teachers to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee.

Section 3.

At the request of the President, or in the absence of the President, the President-elect shall perform all the duties of the President.

Section 4.

The President-elect shall assist the President.

(Revised May 12, 2016)

Section 5.

The Secretary shall keep the record of the annual meeting and of the meetings of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors and shall handle the correspondence of the Association. The records shall be filed annually and become the property of the Association.

(Revised May 12, 2016)

Section 6.
