Brian Calverley
Master 2020

Brethren, Family and Friends,

Happy New Year! I look forward to serving as your Worshipful Master for 2020. If you haven't been out to Lodge lately please drop by most if not all Monday evenings we have some event going on or just drop in to share in some fellowship. We have a number of degrees to complete in the coming months as our new candidates, entered apprentice and fellow craft masons advance. If you'd like to participate in the degree work or attend, please do!

Special thanks to W.B. Sigismondi, Brother Pete Cardilla and Brother Fred Dunn-Ruiz on all their work to host and make the Lodge Holiday Party a success in December it's now become an annual event. Santa and one of his elf's made an appearance everyone went home happy and well fed. I look forward to continuing this in December 2020.

My New Years resolution is to be a better man....what's is yours?
"Freemasonry teaches not merely temperance, fortitude, prudence, justice, brotherly love, relief, and truth, but liberty, equality, and fraternity, and it denounces ignorance, superstition, bigotry, lust tyranny and despotism." - Theodore Roosevelt

Fraternally,
Brian Calverley
Master 2020

Brethren

We are next to the end of our calendar year and it's good to take a look back on our 2019 Masonic journey.

We open the year with the new three principal officers on the line of duty: Worshipful Master, John Sigismondi; Senior Warden, Brian Calverley; and Junior Warden Paul Chavez. The three of them did a great job and had fun doing it. Sadly our brother Paul moved to Oregon. The year continued and new officer advanced on succession to the East. I gladly took the station of the Junior Warden, Peter Cardilla took the Junior Deacon's place, later he advanced to Senior Deacon as brother Leo Ornelas went back to school. Let's also acknowledged Ed, our brother the treasurer and brother Frank with his outstanding job.

Masonry is not only sit on chair and memorize ritual work, there is also the hard labor management of the brothers behind the scenes, those keeping up with the maintenance of the building, and even deeper there are those brothers keeping the spirit of the brotherhood alive. As the year kept on going we all demonstrated that we are prompt to help as we are needed, on our own capabilities, and that my brothers is what builds a strong and healthy lodge. Let's make of this coming year yet a better year to look back at.

Season's Greetings!

It may be cold and wet out, but this is a great time of year for Masonry! We had a wonderful turnout for the Christmas party where Fred made a most convincing Santa, Pete rocked it as Head Elf and Master of Ceremonies, and John and Andrea outdid themselves as per usual with incredible food, gifts, and decorations. Next up, we have our annual installation ceremony followed a couple days later by our first stated meeting with Worshipful Brian at the helm. Everyone should come join us for the fun!

Masonry is alive and well at Confidence Lodge in Soquel, California. This is evidenced by the healthy number of new members, the continued involvement of the old timers, the work being done to improve the building, and all of the brotherly love demonstrated at our meals, meetings, and degree ceremonies. We are all blessed to have such a vibrant Masonic community.

Fraternally yours,
Zeke Floro
Junior Warden 2020
