El Santuario de Los Pobladores (The Sanctuary of the Settlers) is a committee of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish established for the purpose of creating a magnificent arts center, an "adobe" sanctuary. The labyrinth is to be constructed out of adobe, the ancient earthen building technique brought to the San Luis Valley by the early settlers to this part of Southern Colorado, and will be built next to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Conejos, the oldest parish in Colorado. Currently we are promoting an adobe campaign to build the wall which will surround the chapel. Anyone wanting to purchase an adobe in memory of a Loved One or someone special, please contact the church office at 719-376-5985. We will gladly accept any donations, and a contribution of $100 or more will entitle you to a memorial plaque inscribed with your information. We can also arrange for payment by installments. The following list of names have purchased and/or pledged their support of this undertaking, & will be updated as the project moves forward.

MASS READING
REFLECTION

Feb. 21, 2021
First Reading
Gn 9:8-15
[Sign of the Covenant]

In order to understand the common theme of today's Bible readings, we must keep in mind the belief of the ancients that disasters of nature, such as a flood, were caused by evil spirits, wicked angels, the power of evil and sin. But if people were faithful to God's covenant, they could overcome the power of evil with God's help.

The flood story with its rainbow is a beautiful allegory containing a very meaningful and universal lesson. God will preserve the universe if human beings want to cooperate. Ecology is a Christian concern! Responsibly using the resources of the planet and not wasting them is overcoming the evil of destruction.

Second Reading
1 Pt 3:18-22
[Power of the Resurrection]

By his death Christ overcame the power of evil: "he . . . went to preach to the spirits in prison," announcing their defeat to the cosmic powers of evil, including the disobedient spirits at the time of Noah (First Reading). The author sees an analogy between the waters of the flood and the baptismal bath. A few persons escaped in the ark through the water and were saved. A baptismal candidate goes through the water (immersion), is saved, and is able to overcome the powers of evil.

The author warns, however, that the baptismal water as such does no good, unless it is accompanied by the pledge to God that proceeds from a good conscience.

1st Sunday of Lent

1ST SUNDAY OF
LENT
Be merciful, O Lord,
for we have sinned.
Responsorial Psalm

THEME: Overcoming the Powers of Evil

Seeing New York from the Empire State Building gives a view that the person in the street cannot have. The astronauts saw the earth and life on it from a distance. This has changed them. Many of them have admitted that they experienced a new sense of God. We can only surmise their experience by looking at their pictures of that bluish ball silently circling around in an unfriendly universe. The POWs in Vietnam had a similar experience. That time of isolation has done something to them.

In the Catholic tradition, we have our retreat houses, parish missions, and annual Lenten observance. It is the idea of getting off "the merry-go-round" for a while and standing away from life in order to take a realistic look at ourselves. Through the mass media modern life is constantly imposing its neon-light values on all of us. These values are glittering and tempting. Francis of Assisi was fed up with this kind of life and "dropped out." In the sixties many quit society to live in communes away from the cities. Lent should help us to focus our attention on the real thing and prepare for the feast of our redemption, Easter.

Put aside some extra time for meditative Bible reading and take part in the Lenten exercises of your congregation. Doing things together makes it easier!
