Silver Bay U14 Softball Recap

By John Sandstrom

There are a large number of summer teams to cover and unfortunately a person tends to miss a few of the younger teams.

One of the teams I promised to spotlight was the Silver Bay U14 softball team and I want to correct that oversight. The team included a self-proclaimed "iron ten" of players (ten people that showed up game after game) including three from Cook County.

Coach Jeff Asmussen said, "I was really pleased how much we improved as individuals and as a team. As an example, we traveled to Greenway and got blown out in the first game. It was 8-0 before we could blink!

The Cook County players included Rachel Dorr, Kallie Anderson, and Iylla Christiansen, along with coach Jessie Anderson. Asmussen added, "I really appreciated the commitment of the Cook County players who were there all the time."

The remaining team members included Autumn Davies, Mackenzie Thums, Alexxa Harrison, Layla Popp, Ashlyn Schwarz, Madison Ollman, and Christina Kaiser.

Anderson, Dorr, and Ollman were selected to play in an all-star game in Grand Rapids.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I would like to thank the North Shore Journal for publishing both the thought provoking article reprinted from the Epoch Times regarding censorship, and last weeks 'letter to the editor' critical of the same piece.

More 'troubling and concerning' is the use of disparaging remarks and labeling of the Epoch Times at the outset of the letter writer's comments. While that is his privilege to do so, consider the subtle and condescending ways these types of character attacks are leading to a 'cancel-culture' mentality that is becoming more pervasive in our news and commentary.

How will we be able to do that if companies and/or our government increasingly find themselves as arbiters of what is 'good or bad or mis-information'? Who's behind the Epoch Times? - Check it out. Are they Pro-Trump or anti-China? - Check it out!
