August 17 Sunday 10am Service: *The Four Agreements: Creating a New Dream with Scottie McIntyre About ten years ago, I stumbled upon a little book by Don Miguel Ruiz called, "The Four Agreements: A Toltec Wisdom Book". The four agreements are promises you can make to yourself about how to act in the world, and over the past decade, I've tried to use them - more or less successfully - as a personal covenant with myself. They are: (1) Be Impeccable with Your Word, (2) Don't Take Anything Personally, (3) Don't Make Assumptions, and (4) Always Do Your Best. Easier said than done, of course, but a good way to live. POTLUCK SUNDAY

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES AUGUST 23 7PM IN THE ANNEX

“MURDER MYSTERY NIGHT!!” THE THIN MAN The first installment of one of the most successful detective serials in film history introduces stylish sleuthing spouses Nick and Nora Charles (William Powell and Myrna Loy), who -- between martinis -- investigate the disappearance of a wealthy inventor. Powell and Loy's quick-witted repartee in their crackling debut set a Hollywood tradition, but the film's rapid-fire mystery plot still delights modern viewers.

Don't Forget Your Water

Our annual water service scheduled for the first part of September, sometimes called a "water communion", is beloved by Unitarian Universalist congregations and others around the world.

The water service is a UU ritual, conducted on the first Sunday in September when friends and members return from their summer travels. All are invited to bring a sample of water from their travels or water that has other significance for them. All of the samples are poured into a common bowl or vase to signify coming together again. It's a way of symbolizing that many are one, and a way of getting re-acquainted.
