The province will go Green at midnight on July 30th. This allows us to remove some restrictions in our churches. However, we will have to continue to be careful as Covid-19 is always with us. We are encouraged to practice health measures such as handwashing, or staying home when sick. Parishioners are NO longer required to call and register for Mass. Face masks are no longer required, but respect and acceptance must be shown to those who choose to wear them for health or safety reasons. Hand sanitizer will be available for use if you wish. No distancing is required. Singing may be resumed as before Covid-19 without restrictions.

The following restrictions are to be maintained: Holy Communion: For the time being, as a matter of prudence, we will refrain from distributing communion in the cup or receiving on the tongue. The sign of peace will be exchanged by bowing or making other gestures without contact.

Prayers of the Faithful 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For the Church, and everyone who serves Christ's Body in worship and leading its flock. We pray:

For the single, the engaged, the married; for the ordained, for our sisters and brothers in consecrated life. We pray:

For nations affected by poverty, civil unrest and for countries under lockdown due to covid-19; for perseverance and trust in God's power in the face of persecution and injustice. We pray:

For our province as Covid-19 rules are relaxed, we pray for the safety and well being of every individual and for us to look out for each other and be considerate of their needs. We pray:

For the bread of life, to hunger for the food that lasts, the bread of God which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. We pray:

For the spiritual and physical well-being of all parishioners, for the sick and for those who have died. We pray:

"What is it that we Consume"

A Commentary on transubstantiation taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

1375 It is by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ's body and blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament. The Church Fathers strongly affirmed the faith of the Church in the efficacy of the Word of Christ and of the action of the Holy Spirit to bring about this conversion. Thus St. John Chrysostom declares:

It is not man that causes the things offered to become the Body and Blood of Christ, but he who was crucified for us, Christ himself. The priest, in the role of Christ, pronounces these words, but their power and grace are God's. This is my body, he says. This word transforms the things offered.

And St. Ambrose says about this conversion: Be convinced that this is not what nature has formed, but what the blessing has consecrated. The power of the blessing prevails over that of nature, because by the blessing nature itself is changed. . . . Could not Christ's word, which can make from nothing what did not exist, change existing things into what they were not before? It is no less a feat to give things their original nature than to change their nature.

1376 The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: "Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation."

1377 The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: "Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation."

I would like to extend my most grateful thank you and appreciation to all those who attended my 45th Anniversary Mass at St Augustine's on the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. To those who contributed to the costly repair of my wrist watch; those who sent me cards with such beautiful sentiments and those who were kind enough to give me a monetary gift. I have offered a Mass of Thanksgiving for all of You. God Bless each and everyone of You for your Love, Prayers and support for me and my Priesthood. Thankyou!

Fr. Laurence Quin-Morris

R.C.I.A. stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults."

It does require a commitment of time but we think you will find the process much easier than you might expect. In addition, we have found that everyone who becomes involved, young or old, highly religious or moderately so, finds the process to be a wonderful experience. An invitation is extended to those who are not baptized, those baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and / or Confirmation, those baptized in another Christian tradition who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church. For information please contact the parish office at 857-4223.

Celebrating the Year of St. Joseph

O Joseph, son of David and descendant of Abraham, as God's plan of salvation unfolded in the promise of the Saviour, you were attentive in your humble way to the voice of the Lord in supporting Mary as the Mother of God's only begotten Son, our Redeemer. In response to God's word, you took Mary as your wife, and left your home and work in Nazareth, that the Child might be born in Bethlehem in accordance with the Scriptures. It is for this reason that we implore your loving intercession that we may be docile, courageous and committed to Christ's call in our lives no matter what difficulties, sacrifices or trials we and our families must endure. V. O Saint Joseph, righteous and loving in the sight of God,

Save the Date! Tending the Soil, Tending the Sower, 2021

This year's catechists' formation takes place on September 18th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview beginning at 8:30 a.m. and finishing by 2:00 pm. This year's presenters will be Trevor Driesbeck (Faithful Voices: Conversations with Canadian Young People), Claudette Derdaele (Listening, Attending, Preparing, and Hearing), and Margot McAloon-Parker from the Diocese of Saint John (Accompanying Families: Wisdom from the New Directory for Catechesis).

Watch your bulletin in August for additional details.

Delegation to the Holy See

Many people have expressed their sorrow and disappointment to me following the tragic discovery of the remains of many children at former Residential School sites in Western Canada. As with many of you, the pain of such a tragedy has disturbed me and deeply touched me. Since then, many people have rightly called for an explanation and an apology from the Catholic Church.

In search of more significant healing and reconciliation for the future, the CCCB (Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops) announced yesterday that a delegation will travel to Rome to meet Pope Francis from 17 to 20 December 2021. Pope Francis will hold personal meetings with each of the three distinct groups of delegates, First Nations, Métis, and Inuit, and a final audience with all representatives on 20 December 2021. Planning for the delegation is underway, and further details will be provided at a later date.

These meetings will allow Pope Francis to hear directly from representatives of Indigenous peoples in the hopes of responding to the suffering of Indigenous peoples and the ongoing effects of intergenerational trauma. In the 29 June 2021 statement, the CCCB wrote: "The Bishops of Canada reaffirm their sincere hope that these forthcoming encounters will lead to a shared future of peace and harmony between Indigenous Peoples and the Catholic Church in Canada." I invite you to visit the CCCB website on this subject.
