Guest Speaker: Chief Tim Barfield

Tim Barfield is in his 36th year as a police officer. Tim's first sworn position was in Berlin Hts., Ohio before transferring to the Amherst Police Department for about 1 year. He spent the majority of his career in the Maple Heights Police Department where he received many awards including two awards for valor. He was a range officer and lead DT instructor prior to retiring from that position. In 2014, he accepted a position as police chief for the Wellington Police Department. He is a husband, father and grandfather who has a love for police work and police officers with a goal of helping them succeed in a great profession. His responsibilities and desires have included patrol, traffic, DARE, SWAT, training and supervision. He is a member of the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association and Chairman of the Board of the Law Enforcement Training Trust. He is a contributing writer to Policeone.com and Law Officer.com. He continues to learn and instruct on subjects with an emphasis on awareness, police survival mindset and ethics.
