Quotes:

“This student will be a very positive influence on a college campus. His work ethic, academic skills, and competitive nature will make him a high performing student who will complete his master’s degree in business. He will be a person who will make a positive difference in the lives of the people he touches as a business person.” Dianne Chrisman - Teacher: Mathematics and Psychology

“Thank you so much for the scholarship, as living in the Bay Area can be very expensive so the financial support will allow me to focus on my academics. I really appreciate your support, and I’m very excited to start my college experience!”
