

2017 Winners, Lydia Pidlusky and Amber Neilsen

THE THIRD ANNUAL DIRECTOR'S CHALLENGE

Building on the success of the last two years, Theatre on the Road's annual DIRECTOR'S CHALLENGE will return. Performances will be at the Unison Arts Center in New Paltz on Friday, April 27th, Saturday, April 28th at 8 pm. Six short plays will be selected from an open submission process. Whether you're a playwright, a director, or both, you will be responsible for casting, directing and rehearsals. If the play you submit is not original to you, you will be responsible for royalties.

RESERVATIONS: 845-255-1559
$25 GENERAL, $20 MEMBERS, $15 STUDENTS AND SENIORS

THE RULES

Plays should be self-contained with a beginning, middle and end. The running time for each play must be no more than 15 minutes. Scripts will only be accepted via electronic submissions in PDF format, with the exact title of the play as the name of the PDF. Theatre on the Road reserves the right to refuse any play for any reason. No comments or critiques will be given on plays submitted.

2016 Winner, Tony Cox

HOW TO SUBMIT

Submissions close at 12 NOON on Saturday, February 17, 2018. No exceptions will be made to this deadline. Please plan to submit before the deadline to avoid any last minute technical or other issues. Email your play to theatreontheroad@gmail.com.

THE CHALLENGE

Audience members will be given a ballot and at the end of each evening's performance they will be asked to anonymously vote for the play they liked best. After the second, and final performance, the ballots will be tallied by a committee of four people, and the director whose play received the most votes will win the GEORGIE!
