“The Yet Un-Sung Hymn”

There's a hymn in our hymnal I never hope to use. Its not because LSB #794 is difficult musically, but because the situation it is meant to address is so horrific: the tragic loss of young life or older life by senseless violence. Its very title is chilling: “When Aimless Violence Takes Those We Love.” May God spare us such awful and painful tragedy in our midst! But sadly, such pain and loss are all too common in our country and the news these days. We live in a sinful world and far too often violence and evil assail us. Even without criminal attacks, we are still confronted with the shock of accidental loss of life or the inevitable passing of loved ones by natural death. How can we survive the pain of parting any type of death brings? The tiny print at the bottom of the page below Hymn 764 (you do know about those, don't you?) points us to the powerful, comforting words of Scripture that will bear us up as we turn in trust to Jesus (2 Cor. 1:3-5; 1 Peter 2:21-24, 4:12-14, 19; Psalm 9:9-10). Other consoling words from our Savior over death and the grave are also found in 1 Corinthians 15 and Hebrews 2:14-18. The God who created us for life does not abandon us in time of sorrow or loss but comes alongside us to soften our grief and keep it from overcoming us. We know that God understands sorrow and deep pain because of Jesus' death on the cross, yet His resurrection proved His victory over sin and death which He gives to all who cast their burdens on Him. There is no heartache that Jesus' love cannot bring us through. And best of all, we have the promise of reunion around the throne of God on the day of Christ's return and our physical resurrection. The Lord will wipe away all tears on that day as we join Him and our departed, believing loved ones thanks to Jesus' grace and love.

Until that day, and amid the dangers and challenges of life, stay connected to our gracious Triune God by worship with us here at BSLC, Scripture reading, prayer and Christian fellowship. Have a blessed summer with Jesus!

Your brother and servant in Jesus,

Pastor Bob Deardoff

“The Mountain Top”

A Note from Jarryn

It's hard to believe that just a day ago as I write this, I was sitting on top of Cedar Mountain in Colorado at sunset with 15 other graduates, college students and young adults. Together we were singing and praising God at almost 9,000 ft. To get to this mountain's peak, is not an easy climb, especially after spending two days doing grueling physical labor. However, the climb is so worth it, so much so a picture can't do it proper justice.

The truth though is that in that moment when you reach the peak, look around and see God's creation, you forget that your shoulders and back ache, you forget that the muscles in your arms feel like jelly and that your face looks like a tomato. In that moment all you can focus on is the beauty of what God created.

That moment is one of the many goals of the Lutheran Valley Servant Event. During the weekend we have the great opportunity to help the LVR staff get ready for the summer. Over the years those tasks have varied from actual blazing a trail with a shovel and a pick axe, cleaning up from the Hayman Fire, wood splitting, fence building, roofing, driving rebar into the rocky soil to replace the seating in Outpost or painting and staining, and many, many more. The evenings are what truly refocus us and build relationships. During the evenings we spend time in Bible Study as well as praise and worship time. This year the Bible Study was focused on Prayer, and it was truly eye opening.

The culmination of this trip though is topping Cedar Mountain whether at sunrise or sunset (I prefer sunset). No matter how many times I top this mountain it is always a fantastic reminder of Ephesians 8:10, “For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.”

For the young people that go on this trip many of them don't have much in the way of money, but they have time and talents and they get the chance to use them to further the kingdom. This trip also gives them the opportunity to build lasting friendships, worship God on a mountain, and maybe use some equipment they never dreamed of. Most of all it's a great way to disconnect from the busyness of life, be still, and remember God isn't far away at all.

In Christ,
Jarryn Wiley-Pearce

Sunday School Leaders Needed

The Board of Education and DCE are campaigning for Sunday School Leaders and Helpers for the 2018 & 2019 school year.

We are looking for people who like to have fun, are energetic and have the desire to teach Sunday School kids. We are looking for several positions within Sunday School. The curriculum we have been using for the past few years has been Group Publishing. They do a fantastic job of laying out the curriculum for each section of Sunday School. The curriculum is laid out so that it is easy to follow, gives several options, and can be taught in the way that is easiest for you. Each week we focus on a different Bible Story using Storytime, Craft, and Songs.

If you know leading Sunday School is not for you, but you would like to help, we need leader assistants as well. This position means you do not have a lesson planned for each Sunday of the month, just that you are willing to help the leader during class time. The biggest requirement for this position is the you are willing to laugh with the children and help as the leader needs.

The position we need to fill by the end are August are:

Craft Leader and helpers (2 would be best)

Story Time Leader and helpers (2 would be best)

Music Leader and helper (1 for this position)

We would like to have positions filled by the end of August so there will be time for leader and helper training for the upcoming year. If you or someone you know would like to get involved, talk to DCE Jarryn or the Sunday School Superintendent Deedra as soon as possible.
