The 2018 theme celebrates the power of kindness.

By acting without reservation or expectation to help others, we now only help each other, but also inspire those around us to do the same.

As members of a community, a country and a planet, we all have the power and responsibility to help one another.

Even the smallest act of kindness can extend far beyond the initial act.

We encourage everyone to look for ways to practice kindness every day.

Change starts with a single act, act now and help change our world.
