KEITH TILLAGE

Tillage Construction LLC.

After making a decision to leave Corporate America, Keith joined together with his father, Ken, to form Tillage Construction, L.L.C. What began as a residential construction company quickly transitioned to a commercial focus once the founders saw the immense demand for quality, dependable commercial construction services. As the owner of Tillage Construction, L.L.C., Keith focuses on the overall growth of the company, setting company policies, evaluating staff and developing new client relationships.

Tillage Construction has been in business for 21 years. Their headquarters is located in Baton Rouge, La. whereas their regional office is located in Dallas, TX. Tillage Construction has service many states such Mississippi, Texas, Louisiana, South Carolina, and Florida. Over the years Tillage Construction has received outstanding honors and awards such as SBA Administrators Award for Excellence – 2009, HUBZONE Small Business of the Year – 2007, Inc. 5000 List – 2010, Black Enterprise Small Business of the Year Finalist – 2012.
