

HALL ANDREW STIRRETT

"ARCHIE"

1917 - 1999

Archie Stirrett age 81, of Caseville died Saturday evening, February 20, at his home after a short illness.

He was born December 21, 1917 at the home of his parents, the late Alex and Ethel (Hall) Stirrett in Meade Twp. near Pinnebog.

Hall Andrew Stirrett, his given name, and Esther Heron were united in marriage on January 22, 1943 in Bad Axe at the Presbyterian Parsonage.

Archie grew up and farmed near Pinnebog until 1947, when he and Esther moved to Caseville. There he worked at Michigan Oven Company until his retirement in 1980. He enjoyed woodworking and crafts, and of course being from Pinnebog he loved to play cards.

Surviving are his wife, Esther; five daughters, Vera Stewart of Caro, Kay (John) Sweeney of Metamora, Gail Wilcox of Bath, Judy (Roger) Meredith of Cass City and Patricia Stirrett of Caseville; two sons, Keith (Shelley) Stirrett of Caseville and James (Lauran) Stirrett of Freeland; 13 grandchildren; three great grandchildren one brother, Milford (Gerry) Stirrett of Georgia; five sisters, Vera (Clarence) Broomfield and Gloria (John) Belew of Bad Axe, Dorothy (John) Nugent of Weidman, Jane (Nick) Kloska of Bay City and Floy (Gene) Glent of South Lyons; two sisters-in-law, Jean Stirrett of Brown City and Bea Stirrett of Bad Axe; one brother-in-law, William McDowell of Bad Axe and several nieces and nephews.

Two brothers, Max and Robert and his sister, Lois McDowell, preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted 11:00 AM Tuesday, February 23, at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. Rev. Matthew Arneson, pastor of the Chandler Presbyterian Church will officiate with burial in Caseville Twp. Cemetery.

Memorials may be given to the:

American Cancer Society, United Hospice Service or Chandler Presbyterian Church